Model 1

What and who: Well, the most important gift I received was my father's pocket watch. He gave it to me on my wedding day. I was deeply moved when I received this gift. As I knew, this watch was really precious and important for my father because he had it for almost 37 years.

Why it was given to you: Actually, this watch was handed down from my grandfather. My grandfather was a soldier and he took part in the war between Japan and China in 1944. Unfortunately, he died in a battle and the only thing he left was the pocket watch. My grandmother kept this watch in memory of him.

Why it was important: This watch was like a treasure of my family. When my grandmother turned 90, she handed down this watch to my father. As the only child in my family, it was passed down to me as my wedding gift, which was quite special for me. Now I keep it in my drawer and value it like my father did when it was his.
