3.2 Here is another model for the IELTS Speaking Part 2. We will focus on the sentences highlighted below. (4 mins)

Model 2

What and when: The book I recently read was Chicken Soup for the Teenage Soul. I read it just several days ago.

Why: I read the English version that was strongly recommended by my English teacher. According to my teacher, the expressions in this book help improve my English. What's more, the short stories are inspirational; they can help me think deeper.

What you like or dislike: I like the short but inspirational stories in this book about love, critical thinking and peace of mind. It is just like homemade chicken soup that warms the chill and heals the ill. Each story has one idea to inspire people. One story is about a boy, who was told by his father to nail the fence every time he felt negative. One day when all the nails were removed, the boy realised that when you say things in anger, they leave a scar just like the holes on the fence. This story reminds me to be nice to others in my daily life.

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.

Key sentences

The weather in Beijing is quite unpleasant. It's incredibly hot in summer and bleak in winter.

When it is rainy and gloomy, I feel sad and even depressed, not only because of the atmosphere, but because all the outdoor activities are impossible for me to do during rainy days.

Hot weather creates a feeling of sleepiness and moodiness, so I usually stay in cool places so that I can concentrate on what I am doing.

Compared with reading books, Chinese people tend to spend more time in watching TV, watching movies, or playing games these days.

Reading makes people smarter and makes people think deeper. Through reading, people pick up new words along the way and reinforce the knowledge they've known.

I believe paper books will be replaced by electronic books, because electronic books are convenient, fast, and environmentally friendly.
