Topic 2—Lesson 2(下篇)

A famous person you would like to meet

Read the task card for 10 seconds and get a general idea of this topic.

Describe a famous person — not from your country — that you want to meet.

You should say:

who this person is what he/she does

why he/she is famous and explain why you want to meet this person.

In the real examination, the examiner will ask you to prepare for 1 minute.

3.2 Here is another model for the IELTS Speaking Part 2. We will focus on the sentences highlighted below. (4 mins)

Model 2

Who: I really want to meet Angelina Jolie one day. I am a big fan of her.

What he/she does: Angelina Jolie is a super well-known Hollywood movie star mostly because of her good looks. She is also known as a woman with inner beauty. She does a lot of charity work for kids and for poor people in need.

Why he/she is famous: There are three reasons why she is famous. First of all, people are attracted to her killer body. Second, she has good acting skills. People love to see her movies. Most importantly, people have good impression of her because of her good deeds. She and her husband have adopted three babies from other countries.

Why you want to meet him/her: Personally speaking, Angelina is perfect in many ways. I always want to take a picture with her so that I can show it off. I would like to interview her about what she was thinking when she got a breast reduction. From the details of her behaviour, I may get to know more about her personality.

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.

4. Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please describe the topic below with what you have learned to make your description better. (5 mins)

IV. IELTS Speaking Part 3 (10 mins)

1. Read and learn the following key words and sentences for the IELTS Part 3. You are suggested to apply these words in the following steps. (5 mins)

Key words and key sentences unique

Example: I think the things that make a person famous are their appearance, their personality, and the unique things they have done. Basically, it's what other people can see or hear.

keep an eye on

Example: Being famous, one can have a big influence on others regarding trends to follow. One's opinion about certain issues can also affect people in general. The disadvantage of being famous is that famous people hardly have privacy since people keep an eye on their personal life all the time.

imitate

Example: Famous people's fashion styles and behavior can influence children who like them. Children usually imitate celebrities in these two aspects.

2. Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (5 mins)

Please give two supporting ideas at least for each question.

What do you think are the things that make a person famous?

What are the good things about being famous? Are there any disadvantages?

Do you think famous people have an influence on young children?
