Model 2

When, where and what: I want to talk about the legend about the Leifeng Pagoda at West Lake in Hangzhou. My grandma told me this story when I was only 8 years old.

What it is about: In the Nan Song Dynasty, a young scholar falls in love with a beautiful woman who is actually a white snake, but she is very nice. They have a very lovely son, and they are living a happy life. Unfortunately, a monk intervenes in order to save the scholar's soul and imprisons the white snake in the Leifeng Pagoda. When the son of the snake and the scholar grows up, he rescues his mom from the pagoda. The whole family lives happily ever after. This legend is so popular that it is performed in Chinese operas, movies, comics, novels and even cartoons.

How you felt: This legend impressed me a lot not only because of the legend itself, but also because of the love I felt from the legend.

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.

I don't think that shopping malls should be open 24 hours, because most people are not awake for all 24 hours.

Online shopping is convenient. I like buying books and CDs on the Internet because it's convenient to have heavy books delivered directly to my home. I don't usually buy clothes online because I can't try them on to see whether the size fits me or not.

Children like to read fantasy books because it's more imaginative than other books I guess.
