Unit 7 Culture

Topic 4—Lesson 2(下篇)

A cultural event in your culture/country

Read the task card for 10 seconds and get a general idea of this topic.

In the real examination, the examiner will ask you to prepare for 1 minute.

Describe a cultural event (in your culture/country).

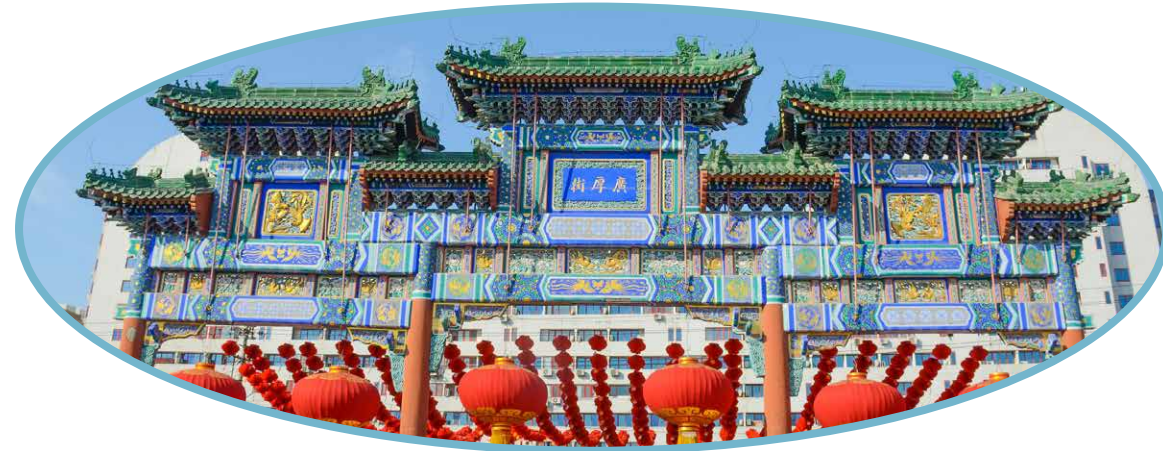

You should say:

what the event is

when it takes place

what people do during this event

and explain how you feel about this event.

3.2 Here is another model for the IELTS Speaking Part 2. We will focus on the sentences highlighted below. (4 mins)

Model 2

What: There are many cultural events in my country, but the one I am most familiar with is Dragon Boat Races.

When: Dragon boat races are held during the Dragon Boat Festival at the beginning of summer.

What: Normally, wooden boats shaped and decorated in the form of a Chinese dragon are used for the races. As the race begins, the teams in each boat start paddling, accompanied by a drum beat to keep pace, while onlookers cheer them on. It is said that the winning team will have both good luck and a problem-free year.

How: I have special feelings towards this competition. As the grandest, traditional event in my hometown, it represents the happiest moments from my childhood. As far as I can recall, my father participated in this competition every year during my childhood. My mother and I liked standing on the bank and cheering for him. After several fierce competitions, it was always my father's team that won the championship. My mother and I felt quite proud of him. Now, although I live far away from home and can't watch this competition in person, I still watch it on TV every year. It reminds me of my past spent in my hometown.

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.

4. Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please describe the topic below with what you have learned to make your description better. (5 mins)

Describe a cultural event (in your culture/country).

You should say:

what the event is

when it takes place

what people do during this event

and explain how you feel about this event.

Homework: please use the models further for these 2 topics after the lesson.

Describe a cultural event you either saw on TV or went to.

Describe an interesting event in your hometown.

IV. IELTS Speaking Part 3 (10 mins)

1. Read and learn the following key words and sentences for the IELTS Part 3. You are suggested to apply these words in the following steps. (5 mins)

Key words and key sentences

a sense of unity and belonging

 Example: Traditions provide a sense of unity and belonging for a group of people. Through celebrating the same traditions and cultural habits as others, people feel connected with others who share the same background as they do.

at the expense of

 Example: I think these people dislike themselves so much that they're unable to appreciate their own culture. Over the past century or two, there have been certain Chinese who have admired foreign culture at the expense of their own. They think being associated with foreign cultures makes them better than the Chinese who celebrate their native Chinese culture.

optimistic

 Example: I'm still fairly optimistic about preserving traditions. Although some people ignore traditions, there are still a large number of people who value Chinese traditions and culture. They maintain traditions through many ways, such as celebrating traditional festivals, and recording oral traditions in books. Because of these reasons, I believe traditions will not be lost in the future.

2. Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (5 mins)

Please give two supporting ideas at least for each question.

What is the value of traditions?

Why are some people more attracted to foreign culture than their own culture?

Do you think traditions will be lost in the future?

Key sentences

The collections vary according to several factors, such as gender, age and income, but one thing I'm pretty sure of is that most men, especially the middle-aged, like to collect things such as antiques or artwork that offer some prospect of financial gain.

Like clockwork, I'd purchase a variety of comics monthly, and once they arrived I would start looking through the coupons for any Star Wars toys I might have missed.

I suppose what people get from their collections depends on their motivations for collecting things.

Through celebrating the same traditions and cultural habits as others, people feel connected with others who share the same background as they do.

Over the past century or two, there have been certain Chinese who have admired foreign culture at the expense of their own. They think being associated with foreign cultures makes them better than those that celebrate their native Chinese culture.

I'm still fairly optimistic about preserving traditions. Although some people ignore traditions, there are still a large number of people who value Chinese traditions and culture.

The next lesson will be Unit 7 Topic 5 A foreign culture you are interested in.
