2. Read and learn the following key words and sentences for the IELTS Part 2. You are suggested to apply these words in the following steps. (6 mins)

Key words and key sentences

Example: I learned how to use and operate my phone from the internet and from my friends who patiently helped me understand how this thing works.

fingerprint scanning

Example: These days, some smartphones perform a variety of functions from fingerprint scanning, taking photos and videos, and checking your heartbeat.

tech geek

Example: Actually I'm not a tech geek; I won't bother to find out about it.

banking transaction

Example: I use computers for many things: emails, surfing the internet for information, banking transactions, and many other things.

3.1 Here is a model for the IELTS Speaking Part 2. We will focus on the sentences highlighted below. (4 mins)

Model 1

What it is: The most useful electronic equipment for me is the smartphone. It is a cellphone that has a lot of other features aside from making phone calls.

How you learned to use it and how long you have had it: I had different cellphones before but I started a smartphone since 2012. I learned how to use it from my friends who patiently helped me understand how this thing works.

Why you find smartphone useful: A smartphone is not a common phone. It's like a small computer that has its own processor and chips. It can connect to the internet and accesses your emails and messages, do calculations and more. These days, some smartphones offer a variety of functions from fingerprint scanning, taking photos and videos, checking your heartbeat and even following voice commands. This truly is a piece of electronic equipment that aids people in performing their daily tasks more effectively and efficiently.
