Key words and key sentences

ample

 Example: My major is International Relations. I spend a lot of time studying the politics of foreign countries. Also, for this major I spend a lot of hours reading foreign literature and discussing cultures other than my own. The most exciting thing about this major is that you have ample opportunities to speak with foreign government officials and scientists.

 Example: I love my current major. There is always something new and challenging in international politics to discuss, and it keeps my classes interesting. For example, what are China's current policies? How are they implemented? Searching for the answers to these types of questions is what makes my major so great.

 Example: One could possibly gain many useful skills from studying this major. A foreign language is required in order to complete this program, so I intend to learn another language. What's more, critical skills gained from the classes for this major can be helpful when I graduate and join the workforce. If I combine these two skills together, they should grant me the chance to become successful in the future.

Extend your answer to 3-4 sentences. It's easier to get 6.5.

3.1 Here is a model for the IELTS Speaking Part 2. We will focus on the sentences highlighted below. (4 mins)

Model 1

What and when: A piece of technology that I have grown to depend on is my smart watch. I bought my smart watch a few years ago at a popular computer store.

How often and what difference: I wear my device every day for health reasons. I wear this advanced piece of technology around at all times and it has helped me to accomplish many goals. It aids me in losing weight due to its focus on fitness. It has also helped to better manage my time by automatically keeping track of time spent doing a workout.

Why: This device has become a vital part of my daily life. It is convenient to slip on and easy to wear because of its light weight. My smart watch has managed to effectively change my fitness habits for the better. It alerts me when I should stand up if I have been sitting for too long and it lets me know when I have reached my calories burned goal for the day, which has led to me having a healthier lifestyle.
