Topic 2—Lesson 2(下篇)

A party you enjoyed

IELTS Speaking Part 2 (10 minutes)

You will be given one minute to prepare to talk about the topic on the task card. You will have to talk for 1-2 minutes, and then the teacher will give you feedback for 2-3mins. (5 minutes)

Describe a party that you enjoyed.

You should say:

whose party it was and what it was celebrating where the party was held and who went to it what people did during the party and explain what you enjoyed about this party.

Tips: During the first stage of Part 2, you don't need to talk. Keep the questions in mind and think them over.

2.3 Here is another model for the IELTS Speaking Part 2. We will focus on the words and expressions highlighted and in red below. (5 minutes)

Model 2

Whose party, what celebrating: Where on earth do I begin? I have been to countless parties over the years and have enjoyed them all in one way or another.

Where held, who went: There was one particular party that I enjoyed the most, though. The party in question was a theme party that was held at my friend's apartment. The theme was "retro glow in the dark". Basically it was black lights and white T-shirts. Everyone in our apartment complex was invited, including countless scores of our classmates. It was also acceptable to bring guests, so the number of participants easily quadrupled.

What people did at the party: First and foremost, people drank at the party, but what made it so memorable was everyone walking around and writing with a special glow in the dark ink on each other's white shirts. It was a perfect way to break the ice and led to many wonderful new interactions and created numerous relationships.

What you enjoyed about the party: Above all else I loved the atmosphere. The music was playing loudly; the drinks were flowing, and the joyous youthful vibes could be felt all around. After the party was the added bonus of reading what we had written on the shirts. Of course the best were phone numbers and declarations that boosted the ego!

IV. IELTS Speaking Part 3 (10 mins)

1. Please answer the following question from Part 3. According to your answer, the teacher will give you feedback on how to improve your organisational skills. (5 minutes)

How to organise your answer in Part 3:

I: Introduction Sentence + P: Points (Point1, Point2...)

What are the main reasons why people organise family parties in your country?

I: In all honesty, people in China organise family parties for various reasons.

P1: In fact, family parties have always remained popular in the typical Chinese culture, because we view the family as a most important component of life.

P2: Besides, we mostly throw parties if it is someone's birthday, or if someone has just gotten married, or if a family member has retired. And we also tend to organise family parties for rare occasions such as family reunions as well.

2. You will learn some key words and expressions from these questions. Pay attention to the structure of the underlined sentences, and the words in red. (5 minutes)

Key Words and Models

Are there many differences between family parties and parties given by friends?

 There are a few acute and noticeable differences between parties thrown by family members and those thrown by friends. Parties that are hosted by the family tend to be very mild and innocent and more or less without alcohol. Parties given by friends on the other hand will usually feature noisy behaviour, loud music, and plenty of beer or wine.

Who tend to enjoy national celebrations more in your country, young people or old people? Why?

 I think that national celebrations in this day and age in China tend to be overemphasized and geared towards the older generation. In modern China many elderly citizens seem to be more nationalistic, which makes these holidays more appealing to them. Also, I suspect that they enjoy these holidays more than the current youth, because many of these holidays were founded when they were young. Therefore, they celebrate these national days now because memories of their youth will flood back to them.
