Do you like to have flowers in your home? Why/ why not?

On what occasions would you give someone flowers?

Are flowers important in your culture? Why/ why not?

The examiner will score your answer from the following aspects:

2. How much vocabulary you have and how well you use it;
3. How many structures you have and how well you use them;
4. How well you pronounce the language.

2. Read and learn the following key words and models for the IELTS Part 1. You are suggested to apply these words in the following steps. (4 minutes)

Key Words and Models

feel at ease

Example: I actually prefer to have plants in my home; however, I am not strictly opposed to having flowers in strategic places of my home. For example, I like having flowers posted in scenic spots next to doorways and at the beginning of long corridors. I think this creates a more inviting atmosphere and allows visitors to my home to feel more at ease, especially if it is for the first time.

on intimate terms with Example: Normally, you give people flowers that you are on intimate terms with, like a boyfriend or a girlfriend. However, sometimes the occasion dictates if one should give flowers. It is popular to receive flowers on one's birthday, a wedding, an anniversary, and even certain rites of passage. It is also common to give flowers to mourning families that have just suffered a loss in the family. Similarly, flowers are a common decoration at funerals around the world.

be customary to

Example: I think flowers are important to the Chinese culture for a few reasons. When you visit someone's home in China, it is customary to bring a gift and most people choose to bring flowers. Likewise, the most common gift for teachers in China is also flowers! The final reason flowers are important to the Chinese culture is the abundance of references to their favourite flower, the lotus flower. This flower symbolises purity of heart and mind, which is something Chinese people have always cherished.

III. IELTS Speaking Part 2 (12 minutes)

1. Brainstorm. Plan your answers based on the given questions. (1 minute)

Describe a meeting you remember going to at work, college or school.

- When and where was the meeting held?
- Who was at the meeting?
- What did the people at the meeting talk about?
- Why do you remember going to this meeting?

Tips: During the first stage of Part 2, you don't need to talk. Keep the questions in mind and think them over.

2.1 Here is a model for the IELTS Speaking Part 2. We will focus on the words and expressions highlighted and in red below. (8 minutes)

Model 1

When and where the meeting was held: One particular meeting that I remember quite well took place a couple of years ago. I was a sophomore in college and had just joined the debate team. Before our very first competition, we had a meeting in our debate leader's apartment.

Who was at the meeting: Our team consisted of twelve members. Surprisingly, everybody on our team managed to show up to the meeting. It ended up being quite packed in the tiny apartment where the meeting took place.

What the people at the meeting talked about: We talked about our strategy in the upcoming debate competition. We also decided on how team A and team B would be divided.

Why you remember going to this meeting: What made this meeting memorable is the fact that it was my first meeting related to my college life. Before my sophomore year I had not been involved in any school related activities, so once I finally joined a team it became special and exciting. The first meeting served to cement my place as part of a team in college and I remained there until I graduated two years later.

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.

2.2 Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (3 minutes)
