Do you enjoy looking for gifts for people? Why/Why not?

2. How much vocabulary you have and how well you use it;
3. How many structures you have and how well you use them;

2. Read and learn the following key words and models for the IELTS Part 1. You are suggested to apply these words in the following steps. (4 minutes)

Key Words and Models

be prone to

 Example: People in China are always giving gifts. Whenever we are invited to other people's houses, we always bring gifts, as this is what social custom dictates. We are also prone to not only give gifts on traditional Western holidays like Christmas and Valentine's Day, but also on China's equivalent holidays as well. Of course, we also give gifts on people's birthdays too!

a breath of fresh air

 Example: The last gift was received on my birthday. I was extremely happy to get this present, because I have wanted one for some time. I got a special remote-controlled drone equipped with a detachable camera! It was such a breath of fresh air that I stayed up all night flying it! It has indeed given me much enjoyment.

hunt for the best bargain

 Example: This depends on how well I know the person I am shopping for. If I have a really close bond with someone, then I certainly enjoy looking for gifts for them. I suppose most of my enjoyment comes from knowing that they will really appreciate the amount of thought I put into choosing their gift. Likewise, I enjoy hunting for the best bargain and when that best deal happens to be a gift for a friend, it is even more of a rewarding experience!

III. IELTS Speaking Part 2 (12 minutes)

1. Brainstorm. Plan your answers based on the given questions. (1 minute)

Describe something you did that was new or exciting.

- What did you do?
- Where and when did you do this?
- Who did you have the activity with?
- Explain why this activity was new and exciting for you?

Tips: During the first stage of Part 2, you don't need to talk. Keep the questions in mind and think them over.

2.1 Here is a model for the IELTS Speaking Part 2. We will focus on the words and expressions highlighted and in red below. (8 minutes)

Model 1

What you did: An activity that I have always been afraid to try but recently talked myself into was bungee jumping.

Where and when you did this: I live in a huge city, so there are a number of exciting things to get yourself into. It was a late night when I thought about experiencing something fresh in my life. My friends remarked that bungee jumping was a major thrill. So I decided that night that the next weekend would be the perfect time to try something exciting. That Saturday afternoon when I began my adventure happened to be extremely hot and gamey. I knew that this would be a memorable event in my life, because I had to take a lift, an elevator, and a special staircase just to get to the location!

Who you did it with and why this activity was new and exciting: What made this activity even more fun was the fact that I went with a group of close friends. Nothing is as thrilling as jumping off a bridge with nothing but a rope attached to your legs. I had never felt such an adrenaline rush as I did on that day! I recommend this activity to anyone looking for a way to liven up their routines. However, I must say if you are afraid of heights, this may not be the activity for you!

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.

2.2 Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (3 minutes)
