

51Talk IELTS Speaking-Advanced

雅思口语高级

——冲刺 7.5 分

Unit 12 Others

Topic 1—Lesson 2(下篇)

A good law

IELTS Speaking Part 2 (10 minutes)

You will be given one minute to prepare to talk about the topic on the task card. You will have to talk for 1-2 minutes, and then the teacher will give you feedback for 2-3mins. (5 minutes)

Describe a good law that brought positive changes.

You should say:

what law it is

when it was passed

how you know about it and explain why it is a good law.

Tips: During the first stage of Part 2, you don't need to talk. Keep the questions in mind and think them over.

2.3 Here is another model for the IELTS Speaking Part 2. We will focus on the words and expressions highlighted and in red below. (5 minutes)

Model 2

How you know & when it passed: All laws are good most of the time, but what defines a good law relative to others is perhaps the depth of its impact. I learnt a good law from the newspaper. Impacting us both socially and economically, the Property Rights' Law of China was passed in the early 1980s.

What is it: A huge sector of our economy today, as we know, is built upon such a simple notion that something belongs to us and we are able to benefit ourselves through it in the most efficient way. It is what provides the security for the growth of our country today. Property rights extend to every corner of our society. For example, we have the right not to allow individuals to violate our property, which links into security and theft etc., and furthermore, we are allowed to sell what we produce through our properties, which grants us the incentive to procure properties. Furthermore, we are motivated to take care of our property, thus preventing the tragedy of the commons from occurring.

Why it is good: I guess in a social perspective, we all feel much safer knowing we have somewhere that belongs to us to seek shelter in case something doesn't go as planned in our lives.

注: Property Rights' Law of China 中华人民共和国物权法

IV. IELTS Speaking Part 3 (10 mins)

1. Please answer the following question from Part 3. According to your answer, the teacher will give you feedback on how to improve your organisational skills. (5 minutes)

How to organise your answer in Part 3:

I: Introduction Sentence + P: Points (Point1, Point2...)

Why do we have laws in society?

I: In my opinion, there are basically two reasons that could explain the indispensability of laws in society.

P1: First of all, laws are an agreed-upon set of rules that hold everyone accountable for their actions and without them people's interests will be harmed easily by others. Just imagine living in a world where an intruder could enter your home, take everything of value from you, and then beat you to an inch of your life!

P2: Besides, laws also ensure smooth social development and without them society will definitely go backward. Anyhow, civilisation grows only when security is provided, because the major function of law is just to provide a safe environment for developing the society.

2. You will learn some key words and expressions from these questions. Pay attention to the structure of the underlined sentences, and the words in red. (5 minutes)

Key Words and Models

Do you think it is easy to legislate a law and carry it out?

 I think that it is in most cases impossible for an individual to pass legislation. The sheer fact of needing a large group of people in order to decide on what is best for society as a whole means that the process for making laws is extremely long and difficult. First, you have to figure out what people need or want, and then you have to create this proposal in precise words that are not open to interpretation. Lastly, you have to make sure of a majority agreement with the law, which is the hardest part.

Do you think that laws should be updated from time to time?

 In my opinion, all valid laws should be updated. Laws are usually a reflection of a society's beliefs and values at a given point in time. Thus, in order to best represent varying generations of people, the outdated content written into laws must be revised from time to time. Also, as civilisations expand and become more advanced, new sets of rules are needed to govern a changing environment and changing sets of beliefs. In these types of scenarios laws must change with each civilisation, or they risk losing relevance and thus causing more harm than good.

V. Summary (5 minutes)

Key Words & Expressions

property right

incentive

in a social perspective

intruder

pass legislation

legitimate

Key Sentences

Property rights extend to every corner of our society.

Furthermore, we are allowed to sell what we produce through our properties, which grants us the incentive to procure properties.

I guess in a social perspective, we all feel much safer knowing we have somewhere that belongs to us to seek shelter in case something doesn't go as planned in our lives.

Just imagine living in a world where an intruder could enter your home, take everything of value from you, and then beat you to an inch of your life!

I think that it is in most cases impossible for an individual to pass legislation.

In my opinion, all valid laws should be updated.

The next lesson will be Unit 12 Topic 2 Questionnaire or survey.