Topic 5—Lesson 1(上篇)

A traffic jam

I. Pronunciation Practice (2 minutes)

More Than One 'to' in a Sentence

"to" is a mostly silent word when there are many of them in a sentence; a listener will notice its absence more than its presence.

Example:

I am not able to come to the office.

Read the following sentence and pay attention to the word 'to'.

I went to the market to buy a cake to take to the party, but I had to stop to ask Bob to lend me $10.

II. IELTS Speaking Part 1 (8 minutes)

Extend your answer to 3-4 sentences. It's easier to get 7.5.

1. Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (4 minutes)

What kind of new things would you like to try?

What causes dangerous things to happen?

Why do some people prefer to do something dangerous?

The examiner will score your answer from the following aspects:

1. How good you are at keeping talking at the right speed and connecting your ideas together;
2. How much vocabulary you have and how well you use it;
3. How many structures you have and how well you use them;
4. How well you pronounce the language.

2. Read and learn the following key words and models for the IELTS Part 1. You are suggested to apply these words in the following steps. (4 minutes)

Key Words and Models

intriguing

 Example: I have always found extreme sports to be intriguing, but have never participated in any myself. I suppose if I could try one new thing, it would be skydiving. I have read that skydiving actually releases chemicals in your brain that are responsible for altering your mood. I think this activity would be so life altering that it might completely change my outlook on life!

as far as I can tell

 Example: As far as I can tell, dangerous things happen in two manners. They mostly happen naturally and according to nature, but then there are man-made events. Natural occurrences considered dangerous are avalanches, hurricanes, and earthquakes. Dangerous things caused by humans include traffic accidents, crimes, and even pollution. The difference between these categories is that one can be avoided, but the other cannot.

shy away from

 Example: Some people have a distinct coolness about them when facing dangerous situations and I imagine this type of person doesn't shy away from danger. These people who find dangerous situations stimulating are oftentimes addicted to the thrill they receive from said situations. I think these people have no other way to achieve satisfaction, but to keep doing dangerous things.

III. IELTS Speaking Part 2 (12 minutes)

1. Brainstorm. Plan your answers based on the given questions. (1 minute)

Describe a time when you were caught in a traffic jam.

- When and where did it happen?
- How did you pass the time when you were waiting?
- How did you feel when you were in the traffic jam?

Tips: During the first stage of Part 2, you don't need to talk. Keep the questions in mind and think them over.

2.1 Here is a model for the IELTS Speaking Part 2. We will focus on the words and expressions highlighted and in red below. (8 minutes)

Model 1

When and where it happened: I live in a huge bustling city, so unfortunately traffic jams are the norm for me. I get caught in a traffic jam at least three times a week on my daily commute. I have no choice but to take the main expressway to work and the turn off to my office building is when most of my traffic issues take place. The access road that leads to my final destination is where I always hit a traffic jam.

How you passed the time while you were waiting: Every time I am in a traffic jam, I always take the opportunity to catch up on any reading I have wanted to do, but usually do not have the time to. I mostly read books about business. Occasionally, I spend the downtime going over reports from work or preparing presentations for the upcoming week.

How you felt when you were in the traffic jam: Since I find myself in traffic jams way too often I really do not have any special feelings toward them anymore. I do have to admit that they still make me a bit frustrated sometimes, because these traffic jams are a waste of time. Perhaps in the future when all vehicles are self-driving and autonomous, this issue will disappear!

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.

2.2 Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (3 minutes)

Describe a time when you were caught in a traffic jam.

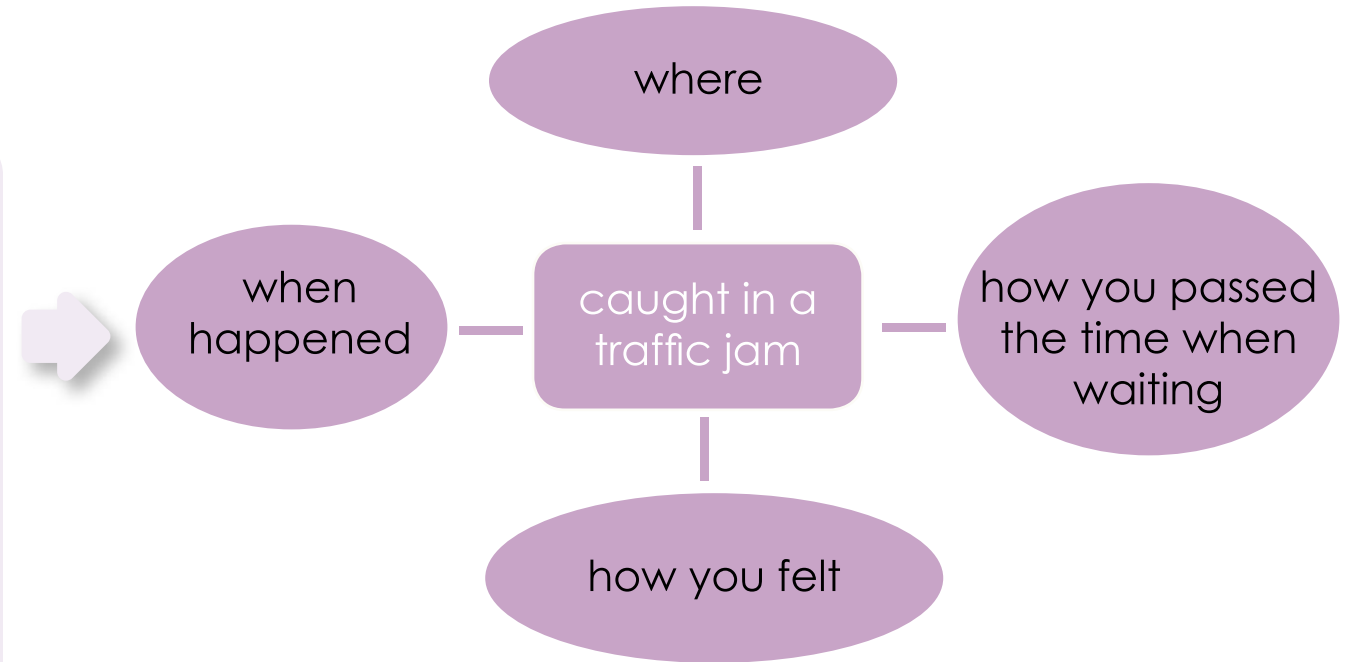

You should say:

when and where it happened

how you passed the time when you were waiting and explain how you felt when you were in the traffic jam.

Homework: Please use the model for these two topics for further practice.

Describe a means of transportation you always use.

Describe an occasion on which you were late.
