Unit 2 Food

Topic 6—Lesson 2(下篇)

A foreign food you would like to try

IELTS Speaking Part 2 (10 minutes)

You will be given one minute to prepare to talk about the topic on the task card. You will have to talk for 1-2 minutes, and then the teacher will give you feedback for 2-3mins. (5 minutes)

Describe a foreign food you would like to try.

You should say:

what it is where you can eat it

how you know about this food and explain why you would like to try it.

Tips: During the first stage of Part 2, you don't need to talk. Keep the questions in mind and think them over.

2.3 Here is another model for the IELTS Speaking Part 2. We will focus on the words and expressions highlighted and in red below. (5 minutes)

Model 2

What it is: The particular food I'd love to have the opportunity to taste is electric eel pasta. This dish is notoriously famous in many South Pacific cultures, and I have always wanted to eat this dish.

Where you can eat it: This dish, as mentioned above, can be found in South Pacific countries.

How you know about this food: For starters, eel is mixed with the pasta, giving it a rich salty taste. I'm informed that it gives the pasta a slightly chunky look, with the subtle colours of the sea, and the flavour is not fishy and offensive but rather subdued and requires a well-developed palate to detect such differences. As for exactly why I'm so fascinated, it's because pasta is often misunderstood as a simple dish. Yet this very play on pasta demonstrates a certain degree of sophistication.

Why would you like to try it: Foreign cuisine cultures have never failed to allure me, and my firm belief is that food is of utmost importance to the understanding of any particular group of people. This is my excuse for being a foodie. Nonetheless, food is a vital part of life and something that should be enjoyed and loved as opposed to the current stance we adopt. Therefore, I make it my personal mission to try a variety of authentic foods when I visit other countries.

IV. IELTS Speaking Part 3 (10 mins)

1. Please answer the following question from Part 3. According to your answer, the teacher will give you feedback on how to improve your organisational skills. (5 minutes)

How to organise your answer in Part 3:

T: Topic Sentence + S: Supporting Details (Explanation/Examples)

Why are there more and more people choosing to eat out rather than at home?

T: I suspect most people are eating out these days because it is much more convenient and enjoyable than eating at home.

S1: When eating outside of your domicile, you do not have to worry about gathering the ingredients, preparing raw food materials, and then cooking them, which is a godsend for people in this fast-paced modern society.

S2: In addition, while dining at unique restaurants, you are enabled to taste a large variety of special delicacies from all over the country, or even the world. This definitely proves to be a great privilege!

2. You will learn some key words and expressions from these questions. Pay attention to the structure of the underlined sentences, and the words in red. (5 minutes)

Where do you prefer to eat at, a five-star restaurant or a small street restaurant?

 Of course I would prefer to eat at a five-star restaurant instead of a small street restaurant. I'm not sure if many people would choose the former instead of the latter when it comes to personal preference, but in reality I think most people have to eat at smaller and more inexpensive restaurants. Since most people are not wealthy, eating at a five-star restaurant is rare and only meant for special occasions. However, if money were not an issue, I think most people, myself included, would choose this type over the other any day.

What do you usually consider when you choose a restaurant?

 The main factors I consider when choosing a restaurant are location, price and the dining atmosphere. First and foremost, the restaurant should be within a decent range, meaning that I can take a bus or even walk there. What's more, the restaurant should have a diverse menu, but with reasonable prices, as I do not believe in spending too much money on the luxury of eating out. Last, the dining atmosphere ought to be quiet and cozy, since I need a pleasant mood when enjoying delicious meals.
