Topic 1—Lesson 1(上篇)

The ideal home that you would like to live in

I. Pronunciation Practice (2 minutes)

Sentence Stress: (When you answer a question, you normally stress the words which give the answer.)

Example:

A: Are they for free?

B: Yes, they are free of charge.

Read the following sentences and circle the sentence stress.

1. A: What do you think of the people here?

B: Well, I think they are very friendly.

2. A: How long have you been here?

B: I have been here since I came to the university.

II. IELTS Speaking Part 1 (8 minutes)

Extend your answer to 3-4 sentences. It's easier to get 7.5.

1. Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (4 minutes)

Do you do anything in your leisure time with friends or family?

Do you think it's important to have leisure time?

How do you usually spend your weekends?

The examiner will score your answer from the following aspects:

1. How good you are at keeping talking at the right speed and connecting your ideas together;
2. How much vocabulary you have and how well you use it;
3. How many structures you have and how well you use them;
4. How well you pronounce the language.

2. Read and learn the following key words and models for the IELTS Part 1. You are suggested to apply these words in the following steps. (4 minutes)

Key Words and Models

for a change

 Example: Yes, I spend portions of my leisure time shopping with friends (or cooking tasty meals together with my parents. Of course, we do eat out for a change sometimes. Whenever possible, we even take a trip around the country or join in global tours.) Anyhow, while I do set aside some time for reading or self-reflection, I largely kill the time with my friends or family.

recreation

 Example: I think it is absolutely vital to have leisure time. There's no better way to promote your own physical, spiritual, and intellectual well-being than through regularly taking some time to recharge and relax yourself. Studies show that productivity and wellness indicators generally suffer without regular intervals of rest and recreation.

sleep in Example: On my days off, I normally go out for dinner with friends, and perhaps catch a show if there are any decent bands playing around town. Sometimes, my more socially ambitious friends will organise an evening outing to a club, and I'll usually go along with them. I also give myself the opportunity to sleep in and generally laze about.

III. IELTS Speaking Part 2 (12 minutes)

1. Brainstorm. Plan your answers based on the given questions. (1 minute)

Describe the ideal home that you would like to live in.

- Where would it be?
- What type of house would it be?
- How would you decorate it?
- Why would you like to live in this kind of home?

Tips: During the first stage of Part 2, you don't need to talk. Keep the questions in mind and think them over.

2.1 Here is a model for the IELTS Speaking Part 2. We will focus on the words and expressions highlighted and in red below. (8 minutes)

Model 1

What type: My ideal home would be entirely dependent on the purpose and the lifestyle I wish to have at a particular time. Assuming that I could afford an ideal home, I'd be able to afford at least a comfortable and worry-free lifestyle. Therefore, my ideal home would be located somewhere isolated and away from a major populated area.

Where: Recently I saw an advert for a floating house located in the Arabian Sea, with half the house submerged just above a coral reef and the other half floating. This house would be located out at sea without any mode of feasible transport in which I might utilise to access civilisation; on the contrary, I would need to own a boat. This is definitely the type of ideal home I have in mind for my future residence.

Why: Actually, what attracted me to this house is that it's such a nouvelle way of life. Its distance means that I could live undisturbed by the hustle of life in the urban districts; besides, since the house is extremely exclusive, only a few people would be able to live such a lavish lifestyle, which, in my opinion, considerably enhances the value of such an ideal home. So if I had unlimited resources, I would certainly love to live in this particular house or one just like it, in some other obscure location.

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.

2.2 Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (3 minutes)

Describe the ideal home that you would like to live in.

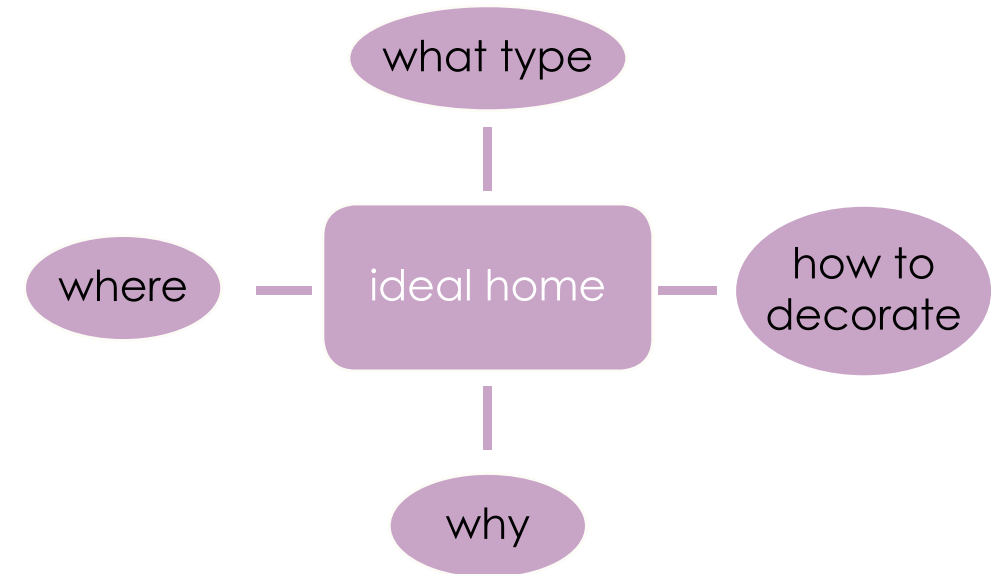

You should say:

where it would be what type of house it would be

how you would decorate it and explain why you would like to live in this kind of home.

Homework: Please use the model for these two topics for further practice.

Describe one of your houses.

Describe your ideal apartment.
