Unit 3 Places

Topic 2—Lesson 1(上篇)

Describe an interesting historical place

I. Pronunciation Practice (2 minutes)

Sentence Stress

We tend to say words in groups and one group is almost like one word. We can call this chunking. Between groups of words, we pause or hesitate.

Read the following sentences and pay attention to chunking.

Well, / I think / it helps people in quite a lot of ways, / for instance, / to get information, / or / to book air tickets. // It also helps people to study/ and to do research/ for their homework, / or even to get advice on how to study.

II. IELTS Speaking Part 1 (8 minutes)

Extend your answer to 3-4 sentences. It's easier to get 7.5.

1. Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (4 minutes)

Are your friends mostly your age or a different age? Why?

The last time you saw your friends, what did you do together?

In what ways are your friends important to you?

The examiner will score your answer from the following aspects:

1. How good you are at keeping talking at the right speed and connecting your ideas together;
2. How much vocabulary you have and how well you use it;
3. How many structures you have and how well you use them;
4. How well you pronounce the language.

2. Read and learn the following key words and models for the IELTS Part 1. You are suggested to apply these words in the following steps. (4 minutes)

Key Words and Models

parental responsibility

 Example: In fact, many of my friends are almost at the same age as me. The reason is simple: people older than me seem busy raising a family and other associated parental responsibilities. Although I'm not opposed to making friends older than me, it does seem that we are missing many fundamental similarities that would make us closer as friends.

die-hard

 Example: Last Sunday, I paid a visit to my friend's house. As a native Beijinger, my buddy is fanatic in his die-hard support for the Beijing Roast Ducks. Therefore, he treated me to this famous dish. After dinner, we also watched a NBA game together, simply because we are both basketball fans, or to be exact, NBA fans. I ended up sleeping over on his couch since we had a good chat but forgot the time, and cabs had stopped running at that hour.

back sb. up

 Example: As the saying goes, "A friend in need is a friend indeed.". For me, it means that a friend is there to back you up whenever you need him, unconditionally, with no questions asked. When the chips are down and your back is against the wall, you'll learn who's a true friend, and who's an acquaintance.

III. IELTS Speaking Part 2 (12 minutes)

1. Brainstorm. Plan your answers based on the given questions. (1 minute)

Describe an interesting historical place.

- What is it?
- Where is it located?
- What can you see there now?
- Why is this place interesting?

Tips: During the first stage of Part 2, you don't need to talk. Keep the questions in mind and think them over.

2.1 Here is a model for the IELTS Speaking Part 2. We will focus on the words and expressions highlighted and in red below. (8 minutes)

Model 1

What& where: An interesting area to explore is perhaps the Summer Palace in China. Not only is it a site of great historical value and importance, it also echoes the need for us to remember our history. The site was conceived by the ancient emperors of China.

What: It was designed to be a place of rest and solitude exclusively for the emperors, or to be more precise, the imperial family. The vast site contains several lakes and was set against the backdrop of fragrant hills, a rather well known spot for its rippling golden sides in autumn. The centre piece was composed of an entirely manmade lake of incomprehensible magnitudes, surrounded by a wealth of rooms and smaller gardens that led off from the middle.

Why: One thing that struck me in particular was the astoundingly well-preserved bridges that span the lake. I can imagine the famous emperors of Qing Dynasty, such as Kangxi, Yongzheng and Qianlong, walking over the palace grounds with their armies of ministers. To stand in the same area where the Mandate of Heaven, which was an ancient Chinese belief that emperors were chosen by a higher power to rule, was handed down is a truly remarkable experience for any tourists visiting this historical site.

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.

2.2 Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (3 minutes)

Describe an interesting historical place.

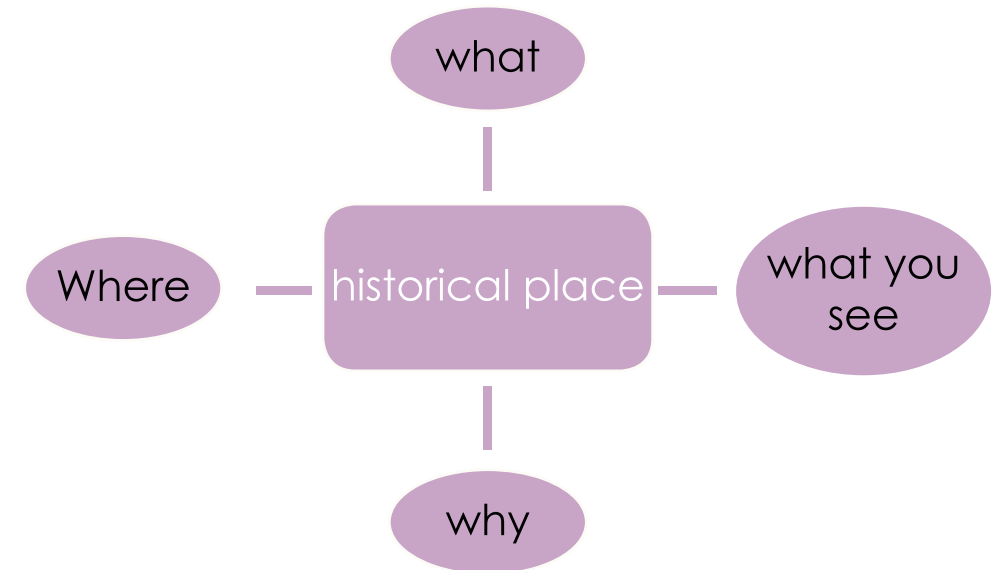

You should say:

what it is

where it is located

what you can see there now and explain why this place is interesting.

Homework: Please use the model for these two topics for further practice.

Describe your favourite historical sites

Describe one palace.

Key Sentences

Most people older than me seem busy raising a family and other associated parental responsibilities.

As a native Beijinger, my buddy is fanatic in his die-hard support for the Beijing Roast Ducks.

For me, it means that a friend is there to back you up whenever you need him.

The site was conceived by the ancient emperors of China.

The centre piece was composed of an entirely manmade lake of incomprehensible magnitudes.

Unfortunately it was ravaged by the British and the French, and signs of the pillage are all too common.

You will learn more about this topic in Lesson 2.
