

51Talk IELTS Speaking-Advanced

雅思口语高级

——冲刺 7.5 分

Unit 3 Places

Topic 5—Lesson 1(上篇)

A restaurant you enjoyed going to

I. Pronunciation Practice (2 minutes)

the Sound of 't'

The sound of 't' is held at the end of a word: but, hot

The sound of 't' is held before 'n': forgotten, carton

't' makes no sound when it is very close to the sound of 'n':
interview, interface

Read the following words and pay attention to the sound of letter 't'.

hit net pat right what certain curtain mountain Latin sentence internet international percentage interact

II. IELTS Speaking Part 1 (8 minutes)

Extend your answer to 3-4 sentences. It's easier to get 7.5.

1. Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (4 minutes)

Which magazines and newspapers do you read? Why?

Have you ever read a newspaper or magazine in a foreign language? If yes, when? If not, why not?

Do you think reading a newspaper or magazine in a foreign language is a good way to learn a language? Why or why not?

The examiner will score your answer from the following aspects:

1. How good you are at keeping talking at the right speed and connecting your ideas together;
2. How much vocabulary you have and how well you use it;
3. How many structures you have and how well you use them;
4. How well you pronounce the language.

2. Read and learn the following key words and models for the IELTS Part 1. You are suggested to apply these words in the following steps. (4 minutes)

Key Words and Models

gain the upper hand

Example: I do not read any printed magazines, but I do read several online newspapers. I mainly read the Washington Post and the China Daily. Both of these online sources provide me with an invaluable insight into other countries' economies and domestic politics. These resources have provided me with extra knowledge that has always helped me to gain the upper hand in arguments with my co-workers.

let off steam

Example: The online newspapers I happen to read are in English, which is a foreign language for me. I tend to treat reading these papers as way to let off steam, which means I typically enjoy this habit in the evening after a long day at work. In my opinion, nothing is better than reading the news while drinking a hot piping cup of tea.

not leave any stone unturned

Example: In general I would have to agree that reading any material in a foreign language is a good way to learn that language. Reading a foreign magazine and newspaper is especially useful as it allows us to increase our vocabulary in a rather short span of time and when learning another language, we should not leave any stone unturned.

III. IELTS Speaking Part 2 (12 minutes)

1. Brainstorm. Plan your answers based on the given questions. (1 minute)

Describe a restaurant that you enjoyed going to.

- Where was the restaurant?
- Why did you choose this restaurant?
- What type of food did you eat in this restaurant?
- Why did you enjoy eating in this restaurant?

Tips: During the first stage of Part 2, you don't need to talk. Keep the questions in mind and think them over.

2.1 Here is a model for the IELTS Speaking Part 2. We will focus on the words and expressions highlighted and in red below. (8 minutes)

Model 1

Where the restaurant was: Located in a small alleyway on the side of the bustling Knightsbridge, the front looks rather insignificant and appears to be something you'd merely pass over without a second glance. However, the inside is another story altogether.

Why you chose this restaurant: This plain-looking Italian restaurant may surprise all who pass through its humble dwelling. I thought its small interior looked infinitely bigger with the clever use of wall mirrors and didn't give that cramped feel that characterises other small restaurants. Instead, it feels rather cozy and friendly. I especially love the wall mosaics, which liven up the entire place. And of course, I wouldn't be speaking about it if the food wasn't of impeccable standards.

What type of food you ate and why you enjoyed eating there: My favourite dish is perhaps the pan seared yellowfin tuna, accompanied by lentils. The grilled lemon underneath gives the whole dish a rather fruity note; however, the highlight was the tuna itself. Seared to perfection, the tuna was soft and succulent, with hints of fishiness replaced by a sea like aroma, which pairs wonderfully with the lemons. Every time I dine here, it brings back memories of my very first time. This is something special that shouldn't be missed if you happen to chance upon this delightful little restaurant.

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.

2.2 Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (3 minutes)

Describe a restaurant that you enjoyed going to.

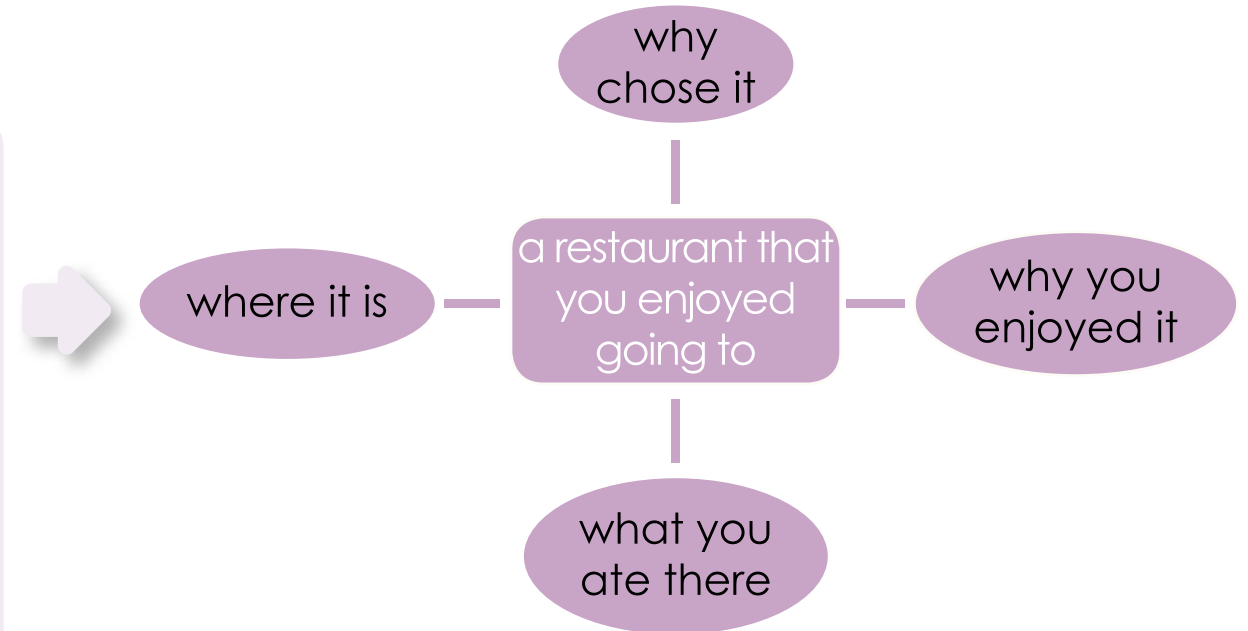

You should say:

where the restaurant was

why you chose this restaurant

what type of food you ate in this restaurant and explain why you enjoyed eating in this restaurant.

Homework: Please use the model for these two topics for further practice.

Describe a meal you like to eat.

Describe a place you would go when you are free.

Review (2 minutes)

Key Words & Expressions

gain the upper hand

let off steam

not leave any stone unturned

bustling

of impeccable standards

succulent

Key Sentences

These resources have provided me with extra knowledge that has always helped me to gain the upper hand in arguments with my co-workers.

I tend to treat reading these papers as way to let off steam, which means I typically enjoy this habit in the evening after a long day at work.

Reading a foreign magazine and newspaper is especially useful as it allows us to increase our vocabulary in a rather short span of time and when learning another language. we should not leave any stone unturned.

Located in a small alleyway on the side of the bustling Knightsbridge, the front looks rather insignificant and appears to be something you'd merely pass over without a second glance.

And of course, I wouldn't be speaking about it if the food wasn't of impeccable standards.

Seared to perfection, the tuna was soft and succulent, with hints of fishiness replaced by a sea like aroma, which pairs wonderfully with the lemons.

You will learn more about this topic in Lesson 2.