

51Talk IELTS Speaking-Advanced 雅思口语高级
——冲刺 7.5 分

Unit 4 Objects

Topic 1—Lesson 1(上篇)

A gift you have received that was important to you

I. Pronunciation Practice (2 minutes)

	Stress Pattern Example: ● Cats eat fish . ● Mary needs a car .

Read the following sentences and circle the words that need to be stressed.

1. Bob lives in France.
2. Bill and Jack make computers.
3. Susan pats the dog.

II. IELTS Speaking Part 1 (8 minutes)

Extend your answer to 3-4 sentences. It's easier to get 7.5.

1. Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (4 minutes)

What are some things you enjoy doing with other members of your family?

Who in your family are you particularly close to? Why?

Do you spend more time with your family or with friends? Why?

The examiner will score your answer from the following aspects:

1. How good you are at keeping talking at the right speed and connecting your ideas together;
2. How much vocabulary you have and how well you use it;
3. How many structures you have and how well you use them;
4. How well you pronounce the language.

2. Read and learn the following key words and models for the IELTS Part 1. You are suggested to apply these words in the following steps. (4 minutes)

Key Words and Models

banter back and forth

 Example: The most practical and indispensable way I can think of bonding with my family is by having a nightly dinner. Unfailing, we sit down and eat a home-cooked meal together, regardless of how busy we are with other things. Events of the day, failures, frustrations, successes and thoughts are all bantered back and forth at the dinner table.

considerate

 Example: My closest family member would be my brother. We were of the same age growing up, so many of the milestones of childhood, pre-pubescence, and puberty, happened concomitantly. He's still my best friend, and oftentimes I know what he's thinking about before he opens his mouth. He's considerate, loyal to a fault, and dependable—everything one could ask for in a brother.

be thankful for

 Example: I spend more time with my friends. Since graduation, I've moved away from home and am unable to regularly keep in contact with my family outside of holidays. While I'm thankful for the circle of friends I've maintained in the new city, I still regret not keeping in closer touch with my family.

III. IELTS Speaking Part 2 (12 minutes)

1. Brainstorm. Plan your answers based on the given questions. (1 minute)

Describe a gift you have received that was important to you.

- What is it?
- Who gave it to you?
- Why was it given to you?
- Why is it important?

Tips: During the first stage of Part 2, you don't need to talk. Keep the questions in mind and think them over.

2.1 Here is a model for the IELTS Speaking Part 2. We will focus on the words and expressions highlighted and in red below. (8 minutes)

Model 1

What it is & who gave it to you: I deem many of the gifts that I have received in the past to be worthy of mention, although the most important gift from my perspective was the bicycle that was given to me by my parents on my thirteenth birthday.

Why it was given to you: As I grew up in the countryside, having a mode of transportation that was convenient and reliable was certainly an expectation. It is basically a rite of passage to learn how to ride a bike in my hometown; therefore, upon seeing this amazing gift I knew that I had arrived.

Why it is important: With this gift I was free to pursue my own interests and at such a young age having your own bicycle is like being captain of your own spaceship, allowing you to explore the wild frontier and opening up many possibilities. Riding also bestows certain responsibilities on the rider. For example, you must be aware of what is going on around you as an accident could certainly spell certain harm or even death. The ability to ride a bike can also have a dramatic impact on your social life because it gives you more freedom and allows you to hang out with your friends more often. In retrospect, I now know that receiving that gift was by far the best thing that ever happened to me. Many of my fondest memories were forged while I was on my bicycle.

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.

2.2 Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (3 minutes)

Describe a gift you have received that was important to you.

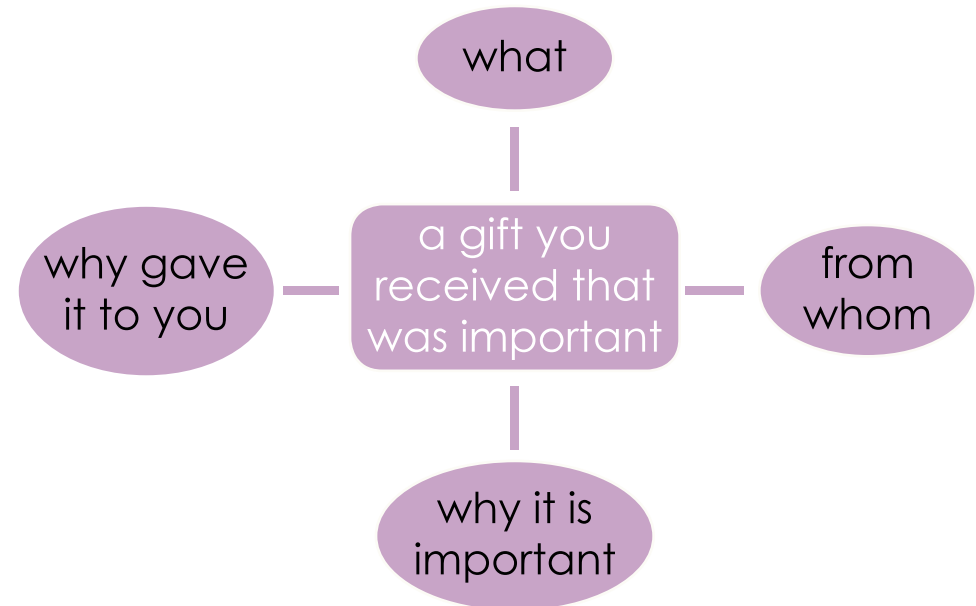

You should say:

what it is

who gave it to you

why it was given to you and explain why it is important.

Homework: Please use the model for these two topics for further practice.

Describe one object that means a lot to you.

Describe a gift you gave to others.

Review (2 minutes)

Key Words & Expressions

back and forth

considerate

be thankful for deem

a mode of transportation

in retrospect

Key Sentences

Events of the day, failures, frustrations, successes and thoughts are all bantered back and forth at the dinner table.

He's considerate, loyal to a fault, and dependable—everything one could ask for in a brother.

While I'm thankful for the circle of friends I've maintained in the new city, I still regret not keeping in closer touch with my family.

I deem many of the gifts that I have received in the past to be worthy of mention.

As I grew up in the countryside, having a mode of transportation that was convenient and reliable was certainly an expectation.

In retrospect, I now know that receiving that gift was by far the best thing that ever happened to me.

You will learn more about this topic in Lesson 2.