Topic 4—Lesson 1(上篇)

An item of clothing or jewellery

I. Pronunciation Practice (2 minutes)

the Invisible 'r'

Example: 'whirl': When 'r' is followed by 'l', the 'r' is in the throat, and followed by the sound of 'l': /wər•rə•lə/

'world' is the same with 'whirl', but you need to add the voiced 'd' at the end: /wər•rəl(d)/

Read the following sentence and pay attention to the troublesome 'r'.

1. He whirled her around until she felt quite sick.
2. Which bridge has the longest span in the world?

II. IELTS Speaking Part 1 (8 minutes)

Extend your answer to 3-4 sentences. It's easier to get 7.5.

1. Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (4 minutes)

Are there exercise facilities near your home?

Do you like to keep fit?

How do Chinese people usually exercise?

The examiner will score your answer from the following aspects:

1. How good you are at keeping talking at the right speed and connecting your ideas together;
2. How much vocabulary you have and how well you use it;
3. How many structures you have and how well you use them;
4. How well you pronounce the language.

2. Read and learn the following key words and models for the IELTS Part 1. You are suggested to apply these words in the following steps. (4 minutes)

Key Words and Models

workout buff

 Example: There is a gym located just outside my community. It is about one hundred yards from my current residence, which means it is basically within walking distance. As far as gyms go, this is quite a nice one. It has a myriad of exercise machines to choose from and would impress even the most avid workout buff.

paramount

 Example: I think keeping fit and being healthy is paramount to a long life. I particularly enjoy exercises that focus on the cardiovascular system. These types of workouts are one of the quickest ways to improve one's fitness level. In a world, where obesity and heart disease are rampant, it is more important than ever to stay fit.

martial arts

 Example: For the most part people in China exercise the exact same way that people in other developing countries do. Apart from that, there are some unique forms of working out in China. The most popular exercise is Tai Chi, which is a form of meditation and martial arts. The other most esteemed form of working out for aged Chinese people is square dancing.

III. IELTS Speaking Part 2 (12 minutes)

1. Brainstorm. Plan your answers based on the given questions. (1 minute)

Describe an item of clothing or jewellery.

- What is the item?
- What does it look like?
- On what occasion do you wear it?
- Why do you choose to talk about it?

Tips: During the first stage of Part 2, you don't need to talk. Keep the questions in mind and think them over.

2.1 Here is a model for the IELTS Speaking Part 2. We will focus on the words and expressions highlighted and in red below. (8 minutes)

Model 1

What the item is: Firstly, let's be abundantly clear in the fact that I do not partake in the wearing of jewellery and I hardly ever go out. I, however, love to shop and buy new outfits, so I shall discuss a particular dress I own.

What it looks like: It is a very refined and formal garb, and its length is reasonable, swooping down to my ankles. It's laced with decorative birds, forming elaborate patterns all over the material of the dress. The fabric gives way at the shoulders to a thin strap.

On what occasion you wear it: Seeing as it's fabricated with delicate silks, it's meant only for formal occasions and would look rather out of place otherwise. Usually, I find myself wearing it to social dances or balls. I have also worn it to other formal occasions, such as the opera and a lovely philharmonic concert I attended last year.

Why you choose it to talk about it: The reasons why I would like to discuss my dress are numerous. For me this dress represents and invokes memories of the many occasions when I have worn it. Those occasions being grand and formal usually signified and marked pivotal moments in my life, graduation, leaving high school et cetera. The most important perhaps would be graduation. I fondly remember the ball and the joyful, feverish evening that marked the start of adulthood for me. This dress amongst other things is one of the few things I have to remind me of those days. I still wear it today occasionally.

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.
