Unit 5 Leisure Activities

Topic 1—Lesson 1(上篇)

An interest or hobby

I. Pronunciation Practice (2 minutes)

Stress Pattern

Example: (the words in bold should be stressed)

- How did you like the book?
- It was pretty good. (The speaker liked it.)
- It was pretty good. (The speaker didn't like it that much.)

Read the following sentences and circle the words that need to be stressed.

—A: How did you like campus life?

—B: it was pretty good. (You liked campus life.)

II. IELTS Speaking Part 1 (8 minutes)

Extend your answer to 3-4 sentences. It's easier to get 7.5.

1. Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (4 minutes)

Do you like cooking? Why/why not?

What was the last meal you cooked?

Do you prefer home-cooked food or food from restaurants? Why?

The examiner will score your answer from the following aspects:

1. How good you are at keeping talking at the right speed and connecting your ideas together;
2. How much vocabulary you have and how well you use it;
3. How many structures you have and how well you use them;
4. How well you pronounce the language.

2. Read and learn the following key words and models for the IELTS Part 1. You are suggested to apply these words in the following steps. (4 minutes)

Key Words and Models

nutritious

 Example: Not particularly, no. Now and then I cook for myself, and it reminds me why I don't do it very often. One can argue that cooking nutritious meals for yourself is the best way to maintain a healthy and balanced diet, but after work I'm too exhausted and lethargic to be bothered to cook a meal.

preference

 Example: I prefer a slow-roasted chicken, basted with lemon and thyme cooked in the safety and comfort of my own home. Unfortunately, my preferences are beside the point as it's unrealistic for me to cook for myself. I find myself making do with fast-food rather than the carefully prepared home-cooked meals more often than not.

budget

 Example: The last home-made meal I cooked was roast chicken legs, sautéed in Italian dressing and served with a salad and black bread. While eating at home is more budget-friendly compared to eating at a fairly expensive Western restaurant in China, as a practical matter, I only have time to make such a meal on the weekends.

III. IELTS Speaking Part 2 (12 minutes)

1. Brainstorm. Plan your answers based on the given questions. (1 minute)

Describe an interest or hobby that you enjoy.

- How did you become interested in it?
- How long have you been doing it?
- Why do you enjoy it?
- What benefit you get from this interest or hobby?

Tips: During the first stage of Part 2, you don't need to talk. Keep the questions in mind and think them over.

2.1 Here is a model for the IELTS Speaking Part 2. We will focus on the words and expressions highlighted and in red below. (8 minutes)

Model 1

How you became interested in it & how long you have been doing it: A hobby that I have always enjoyed throughout my life would have to be puzzle-solving, or to be more precise, word puzzles. I first became infatuated with the puzzle phenomena when I saw my father tediously solving a new puzzle every Sunday.

Why you enjoy it: After observing my father working through these puzzles, I eventually started to help. He would usually ask me questions that he figured I would know the answer to and often times I did. I think it was his way of easing me into this hobby and not turning me away from it completely. Anyhow it worked. I would start doing the Sunday word puzzle on my own and whenever I didn't know an answer, I would ask my father, thus completing the cycle so to speak.

What benefit you get from this hobby: I have to say that this hobby has really increased my vocabulary and given me a deep pool of trivia knowledge that has proven quite useful in my academic studies. I have been able to recall even the most trivial information from my years of word puzzles and I use this knowledge to impress my friends and colleagues. This hobby has even given me amazing critical thinking skills, which allow me to think outside the box.

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.

2.2 Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (3 minutes)

Describe an interest or hobby that you enjoy.

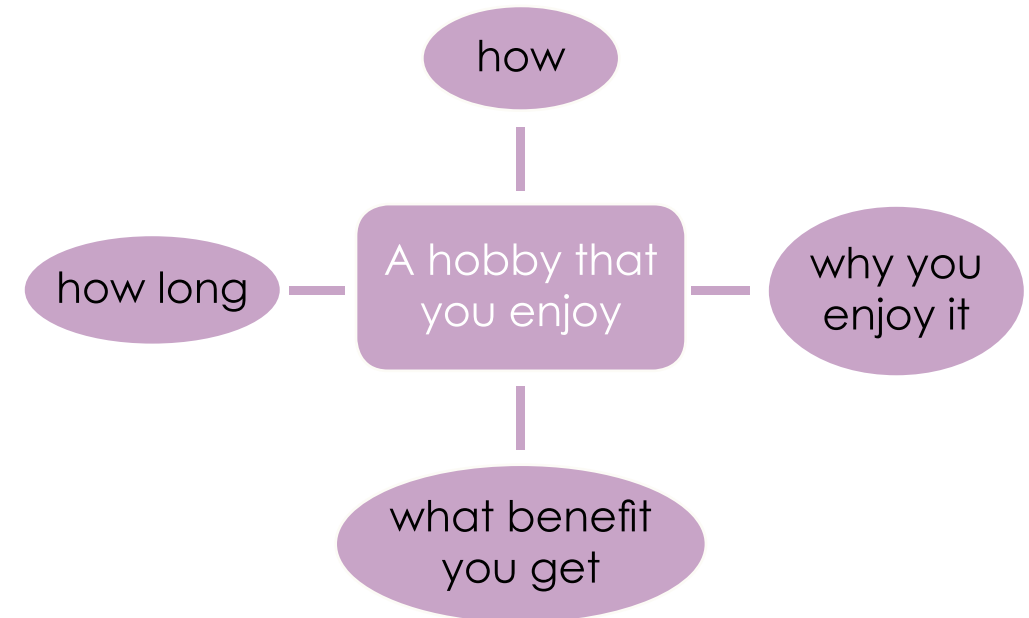

You should say:

how you became interested in it

how long have you been doing it

why you enjoy it and explain what benefit you get from this interest or hobby.

Homework: Please use the model for these two topics for further practice.

Describe things you usually do when you are free.

Describe something you do with other people.
