A performance or a show

I. Pronunciation Practice (2 minutes)

Stress Pattern

Example: (the words in bold should be stressed)

A — You said she stole the necklace.

— I didn't say she stole the money. (Someone else said so.)

B — You said she stole the necklace.

— I didn't say she stole the necklace. (That's not true.)

Read the following sentences and circle the words that need to be stressed.

— You said she stole the necklace.

— I didn't say she stole the necklace. (Someone else stole it.)

II. IELTS Speaking Part 1 (8 minutes)

Extend your answer to 3-4 sentences. It's easier to get 7.5.

1. Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (4 minutes)

Do you consider the price a lot when you select gifts for others?

Do you love keeping your old toys? And why?

Does happiness have anything to do with money?

The examiner will score your answer from the following aspects:

1. How good you are at keeping talking at the right speed and connecting your ideas together;
2. How much vocabulary you have and how well you use it;
3. How many structures you have and how well you use them;
4. How well you pronounce the language.

2. Read and learn the following key words and models for the IELTS Part 1. You are suggested to apply these words in the following steps. (4 minutes)

Key Words and Models

pay no mind

 Example: This answer depends on whom I am shopping for. When shopping for an intimate companion, such as a girlfriend or family member, I often pay no mind to the price of the gift. Alternatively, if I am making a purchase of a gift for a friend, I am more likely to refrain from spending too much money, but instead I shall make a more budget friendly option.

unspoiled

 Example: As a matter of fact, I do enjoy having my old toys from childhood. Most of my toys are considered collectibles and are still in mint condition in their original packaging. Although I do not play with these antiques, having them on display brings me a great deal of satisfaction. The idea that these pristine figures from more youthful days remain unspoiled instills in me a great sense of happiness. Plus, they are worth a fortune.

synonymous

 Example: I think everyone is familiar with the adage that money cannot buy happiness, but does that not depend on each individual's definition of happiness? For many people money provides the type of material possessions that are synonymous with lavish lifestyles; however, if you have never had great wealth to begin with, I believe you would never associate happiness with money in the first place.

III. IELTS Speaking Part 2 (12 minutes)

1. Brainstorm. Plan your answers based on the given questions. (1 minute)

Describe a performance or a show (such as a dancing or singing performance).

- What kind of performance/show was it?
- When and where did you watch it?
- Who did you watch it with?
- How did you feel about it?

Tips: During the first stage of Part 2, you don't need to talk. Keep the questions in mind and think them over.

2.1 Here is a model for the IELTS Speaking Part 2. We will focus on the words and expressions highlighted and in red below. (8 minutes)

Model 1

What performance it was & who you watched it with: A performance that was particularly unforgettable was a concert by Adele that I attended a few years ago. I won two tickets to this concert by being the fiftieth caller on a radio station, so I ended up taking my best friend to see the show with me.

When and where you watched it: It was just after she wrote and sang the opening song to the 007 movie Skyfall. The venue could not have been more amazing than the one she performed at, which was at Beijing Workers' Stadium. My heart sank as she appeared on stage and began to serenade us.

How you felt about it: This concert was so impressive due to its high-tech lighting show, fog machines, and amazingly brilliant pyrotechnics. I have to say that it would be hard for any future concert to live up to the performance of Adele that night. She sang like a woman possessed, hitting every note, and convulsing on stage. My favourite part of her performance was when she went off stage in order to evoke an encore and when she returned, there was a loud bang and a huge bellow of smoke shot out from under the stage. At this point she began to sing her song Skyfall and the crowd, my friend, and I went nuts!

注: pyrotechnics 烟火制造术

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.

2.2 Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (3 minutes)
