

51Talk IELTS Speaking-Advanced

雅思口语高级

——冲刺 7.5 分

Unit 5 Leisure Activities

Topic 5—Lesson 1(上篇)

A journey you remember well

I. Pronunciation Practice (2 minutes)

the Clusters of 'sp' and 'sc'

Consonants 'p' and 'c' are unvoiced; however, when combined with 's', the clusters of 'sp' and 'sc' sound like /sb/ and /sg/.

Read the following words and pay attention to the clusters of 'sp' and 'sc'.

sports

spirit

spam

scare

score

scroll

II. IELTS Speaking Part 1 (8 minutes)

Extend your answer to 3-4 sentences. It's easier to get 7.5.

1. Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (4 minutes)

How often do you make telephone calls? Why?

Who do you spend the most time talking to on the phone? Why?

Do you sometimes prefer to send a text message instead of telephoning? Why?

The examiner will score your answer from the following aspects:

1. How good you are at keeping talking at the right speed and connecting your ideas together;
2. How much vocabulary you have and how well you use it;
3. How many structures you have and how well you use them;
4. How well you pronounce the language.

2. Read and learn the following key words and models for the IELTS Part 1. You are suggested to apply these words in the following steps. (4 minutes)

Key Words and Models

be occupied with

Example: I only ever make telephone calls once a week at the most. I live quite a long distance from my family. The best way for us to keep in touch is by video calling on a specified day. This type of call allows us to see and hear each other, which is a pleasant experience for people that are separated by such a great distance. However, I am quite occupied with work more often than not, so we rarely call each other as much as I'd like.

on another note

Example: I spend the most time talking to my mother on the phone. My mother lives a considerable distance from me, so using the phone to talk with her is the most proper approach and the most efficient. On another note, my mother is not very skillful when it comes to operating a keyboard, so sending text messages or emails is something she does not do.

coherent

Example: I always prefer to send text messages over talking on the telephone. For me communicating via the written word allows me to convey a more coherent message less likely to be misunderstood. Also, I really don't like to talk in public. For example, sending a text message when on crowded public transit is much more convenient for me.

III. IELTS Speaking Part 2 (12 minutes)

1. Brainstorm. Plan your answers based on the given questions. (1 minute)

Describe a journey (e.g. By car, plane, boat) that you remember well.

- Where did you go?
- How did you travel?
- Why did you go on the journey?
- Why do you remember this journey well?

Tips: During the first stage of Part 2, you don't need to talk. Keep the questions in mind and think them over.

2.1 Here is a model for the IELTS Speaking Part 2. We will focus on the words and expressions highlighted and in red below. (8 minutes)

Model 1

Where you went: A trip I distinctly remember was my first trip to Eastern Europe in 2006. To be more specific, I visited Ukraine.

How you travelled: Since this country is a considerable distance from China, I had to fly to Ukraine. I recall flying with a German airline, which was such a pleasurable experience that I always consider flying with them whenever I am set to go overseas.

Why you went on the journey: I took a chance and went on this daring adventure, because my teacher at the time was taking groups of students to experience it each month. Our school was offering reduced rates since we were an education establishment, and we also had an exchange programme with another school based in Ukraine.

Why you remember this journey well: Although I was only there for two weeks, I picked up a lifetime's worth of knowledge. We shared unforgettable and priceless moments. We are of the same age, coming from different cultures and spoke different languages, with similar hopes and fears. This journey taught me to see more than a person's religion or preference in food, but to see the common characteristics that make us all humans.

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.

2.2 Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (3 minutes)

Describe a journey (e.g. By car, plane, boat) that you remember well.

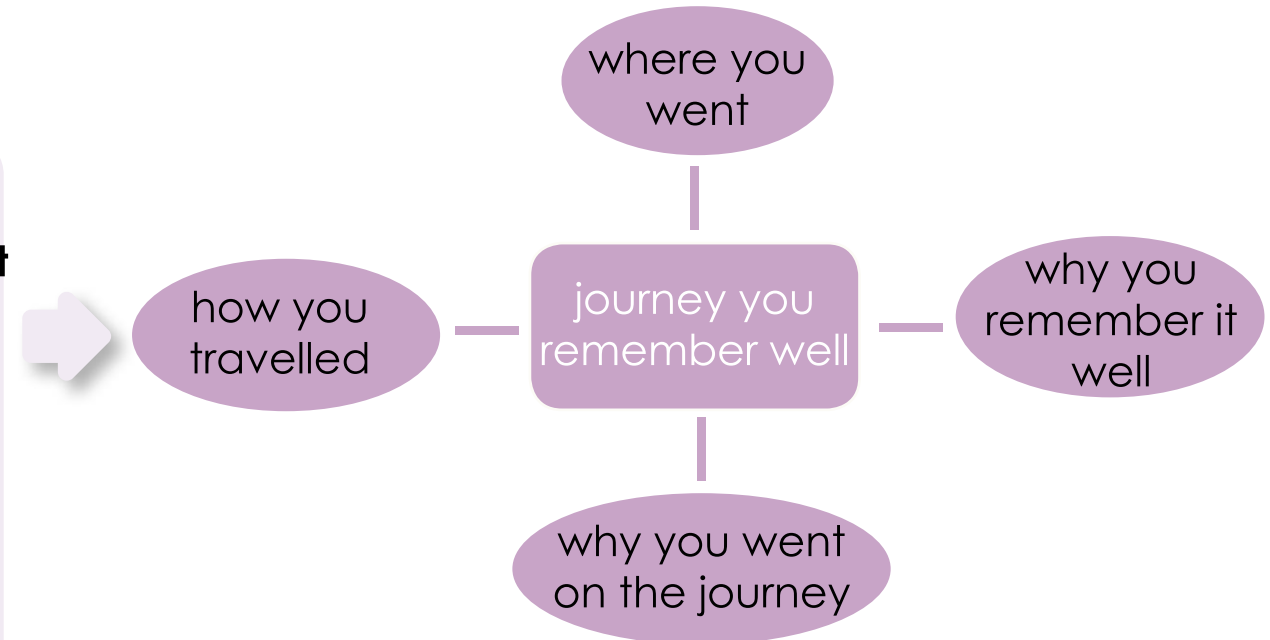

You should say:

where you went

how you travelled

why you went on the journey and explain why you remember this journey well.

Homework: Please use the model for these two topics for further practice.

Describe a disappointing trip.

Describe a foreign country you would like to visit.

Review (2 minutes)

Key Words & Expressions

be occupied with

on another note

coherent

daring

exchange programme

a lifetime's worth of

Key Sentences

However, I am quite occupied with workload, so we don't call many times.

On another note, my mother is not very skillful when it comes to operating a keyboard.

For me communicating via the written word allows me to convey a more coherent message less likely to be misunderstood.

I took a chance and went on this daring adventure, because my teacher at the time was taking groups of students to experience it each month.

Our school was offering reduced rates since we were an education establishment and we also had an exchange programme with another school based in Ukraine.

Although I was only there for two weeks, I picked up a lifetime's worth of knowledge.

You will learn more about this topic in Lesson 2.