

51Talk IELTS Speaking-Advanced

雅思口语高级

——冲刺 7.5 分

Unit 6 Nature

Topic 3—Lesson 1(上篇)

A natural environment you like

I. Pronunciation Practice (2 minutes)

Descriptive Phrases:

Example: (the words in bold should be stressed)

- It's really good.
- It's too hot.
- It's extremely pretty.

Read the following sentences and circle the words that need to be stressed.

1. It's laughably big.
2. It's far back.
3. There are only five.

II. IELTS Speaking Part 1 (8 minutes)

Extend your answer to 3-4 sentences. It's easier to get 7.5.

1. Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (4 minutes)

Where is your hometown?

Do you like your hometown? Why/Why not?

Do you think your hometown is a good place for young people?
Why/Why not?

The examiner will score your answer from the following aspects:

1. How good you are at keeping talking at the right speed and connecting your ideas together;
2. How much vocabulary you have and how well you use it;
3. How many structures you have and how well you use them;
4. How well you pronounce the language.

2. Read and learn the following key words and models for the IELTS Part 1. You are suggested to apply these words in the following steps. (4 minutes)

Key Words and Models

clash

Example: My hometown is Xi'an, which is the capital of Shanxi province in the northwest part of China. It is well-known for being one of the oldest cities in China that still manages to not clash with the rapid development of my hometown. Xi'an is also the beginning of the Silk Road and home to the famous Terracotta Army of the Emperor Qin Shi Huang.

infatuate

Example: I am completely infatuated with my hometown for several reasons. My hometown is interesting. Since it has such a long history and has featured so prominently in ancient Chinese history, there are so many activities that involve archaeology, which is a passion of mine. My hometown is also famous. The fact that everyone travels to my hometown while on their vacations makes it a more diverse environment, and has given me ample opportunities to meet new people.

last but not least

Example: I think Xi'an is perfect for young people. Like many big cities in China, it offers a myriad of services and activities that cater to all age groups. There is a major art district for young people that are into that sort of thing. There are over ten national parks for young people that tend to be more active and enjoy being in nature. Last but not least, there are multiple sports organisations that can occupy young people's time, which also provides a way to meet people with similar hobbies.

III. IELTS Speaking Part 2 (12 minutes)

1. Brainstorm. Plan your answers based on the given questions. (1 minute)

Describe a natural environment you like (e.g. a forest, a lake, or a mountain).

- Where is it?
- What can you see there?
- What can people do there?
- Why do you like this particular natural environment?

Tips: During the first stage of Part 2, you don't need to talk. Keep the questions in mind and think them over.

2.1 Here is a model for the IELTS Speaking Part 2. We will focus on the words and expressions highlighted and in red below. (8 minutes)

Model 1

Where it is: Sadly, experiencing Mother Nature in her full glory is a rarity these days, as it is hard to escape the sprawling urban environment. However, recently I had the opportunity to go to the Lake District, which is essentially a national park north of England, and as the name suggests, its centerpiece is an enormous lake.

What you can see: The area surrounding this natural body of water is covered in beautiful green forests and mountains that seem to peak into the heavens.

What people do there: Many people that end up visiting this location will often times go canoeing on the lake, or if weather permitting, will go swimming. To be fair, as long as you are not destructive or in any way harming the environment, you can pretty much do whatever you want there.

Why you like there: As for myself, when I would visit this park, I would most often just have a small picnic underneath an oak tree and most often just read a book. The peaceful and tranquil atmosphere of this natural environment really lends itself to deep self-reflective moments and can usher in a peace of mind that is hard to come by in today's hectic world. My most favourite part of visiting this park; however, is being able to commune with nature right on her doorstep, as this place really seems like the gateway to nature that people in the city desperately seek.

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.

2.2 Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (3 minutes)

Describe a natural environment you like (e.g. a forest, a lake, or a mountain).

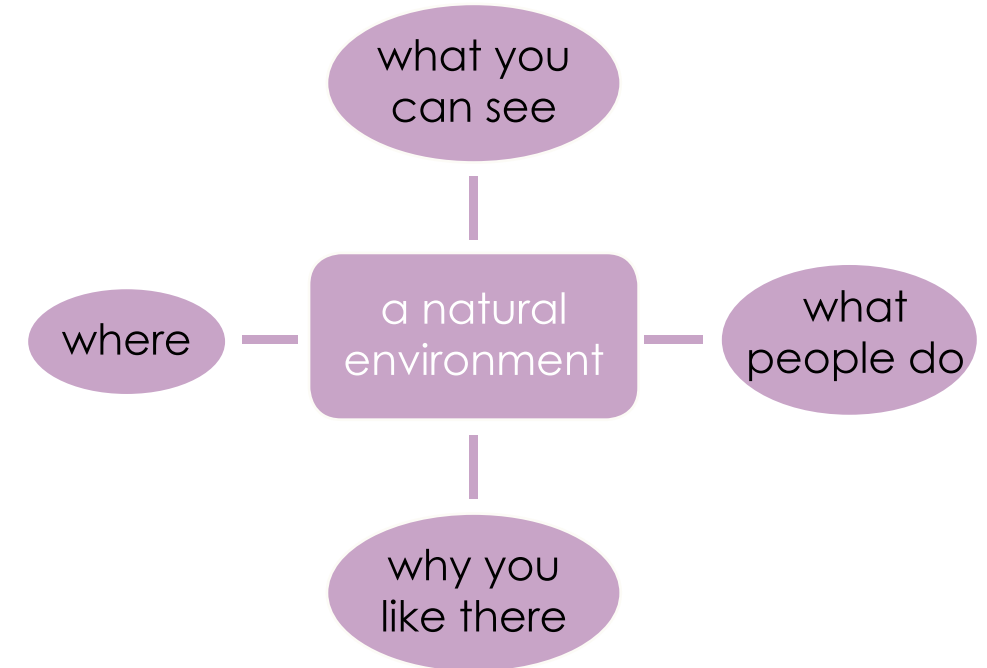

You should say:

where it is

what you can see there

what people do there and explain why you like this particular natural environment.

Homework: Please use the model for these two topics for further practice.

Describe a place you like to go on holidays.

Describe one day off.

Review (2 minutes)

Key Words & Expressions

clash

infatuated

last but not least

Mother Nature

tranquil

hectic

Key Sentences

It is well-known for being one of the oldest cities in China that still manages to not clash with the rapid development of my hometown.

I am completely infatuated with my hometown for several reasons.

Last but not least, there are multiple sports organisations that can occupy young people's time, which also provides a way to meet people with similar hobbies.

Sadly, experiencing Mother Nature in her full glory is a rarity these days, as it is hard to escape the sprawling urban environment.

The peaceful and tranquil atmosphere of this natural environment really lends itself to deep self-reflective moments and can usher in a peace of mind that is hard to come by in today's hectic world.

You will learn more about this topic in Lesson 2.