Unit 6 Nature

Topic 5—Lesson 1(上篇)

The worst weather in your life

I. Pronunciation Practice (2 minutes)

Final 'ed'— Sound /d/

Sound	Example	/g/	bugged	/n/	rained
/z/	buzzed	/v/	loved	/ ɲ/	hanged
/b/	grabbed	/ ð/	breathed	/ dʒ/	bridged
		/l/	piled	any vowel	played
		/m/	drummed	sound

Read the following words and pay attention to the sound 'ed' makes.

amazed robbed tagged craved bathed failed rammed pinned wronged raged employed tried flowed skied

II. IELTS Speaking Part 1 (8 minutes)

Extend your answer to 3-4 sentences. It's easier to get 7.5.

1. Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (4 minutes)

What kind of clothes should one wear in a Chinese wedding?

What are the differences between Chinese and Western weddings?

Where does the couple live after getting married, independently or with their parents?

The examiner will score your answer from the following aspects:

1. How good you are at keeping talking at the right speed and connecting your ideas together;
2. How much vocabulary you have and how well you use it;
3. How many structures you have and how well you use them;
4. How well you pronounce the language.

2. Read and learn the following key words and models for the IELTS Part 1. You are suggested to apply these words in the following steps. (4 minutes)

Key Words and Models

garment

Example: Many Chinese couples in the modern era choose the usual formal garments for weddings as people wear in the west, but with a few exceptions. The bride and groom always wear clothes having red laden in them. The bride will even wear a red dress, which is always quite delicate with an embroidery of a phoenix, dragons and peonies, etc. symbolising fortune and harmony.

Six Etiquettes

Example: In contrast to weddings in the West, Chinese weddings are elaborate with many traditions concentrated around the Six Etiquettes. Western weddings are oftentimes more simplistic and also can vary from couple to couple. Also, Chinese weddings normally take place at hotel ballrooms while Western weddings mostly take place at churches.

back off

Example: Normally, when a Chinese couple gets married, their parents are still relatively young, which means the newlyweds will live alone. Using my personal experience as a reference point, in most cases parents and in-laws tend to back off of recently married couples in order to give them the space they need to begin their lives together.

III. IELTS Speaking Part 2 (12 minutes)

1. Brainstorm. Plan your answers based on the given questions. (1 minute)

Describe the worst weather you have experienced in your life.

- What was it?
- When did it happen?
- What were you doing that day?
- What negative influence did the weather make?

Tips: During the first stage of Part 2, you don't need to talk. Keep the questions in mind and think them over.

2.1 Here is a model for the IELTS Speaking Part 2. We will focus on the words and expressions highlighted and in red below. (8 minutes)

Model 1

What it was: The worst experience I have ever had with weather was from a horrendous thunderstorm. Actually, it was one of those storms having the hugest destructive power.

When it happened: This storm happened a few years ago on a calm afternoon that characterises the month of March.

What you were doing: As far as I can remember, I was riding my bicycle to a friend's house, when I noticed these ominous storm clouds moving in fast. I knew that I would not make it to my friend's house, so I decided to take shelter nearby. My only option was an abandoned warehouse just outside of town. The storm was memorable in itself due to the golfball sized hail shooting towards earth, not to mention the fact of being trapped in a spooky warehouse.

What negative influence the weather had: Funny enough, the most negative thing that came out of that experience was a trip to the hospital. You see, while I was riding out the storm, I stepped on an old rusty nail. I knew far too well the effects of tetanus, so I was obliged to get a shot to prevent any infections. The needle that the doctor used to administer the shot was as long as a pencil! This added to my painful feeling at the moment.

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.

2.2 Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (3 minutes)

Describe the worst weather you have experienced in your life.

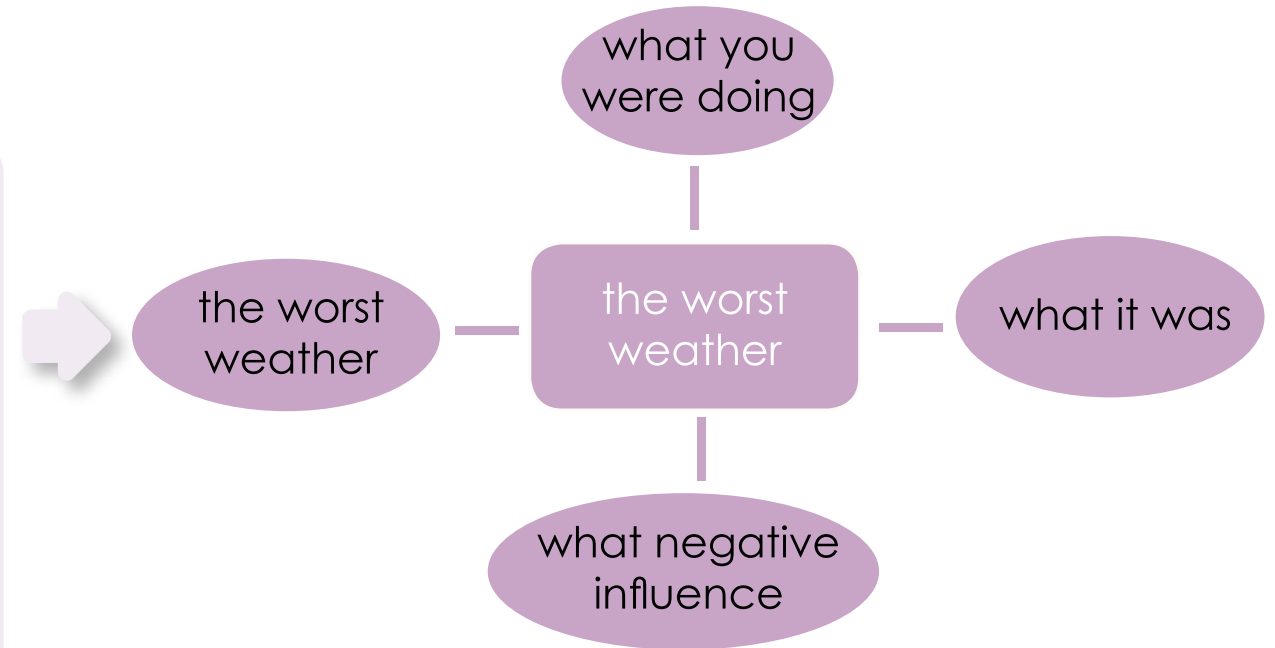

You should say:

what it was

when it happened

what you were doing on that day and say what negative influence the weather made.

Homework: Please use the model for these two topics for further practice.

Describe the weather of your hometown.

Describe the most unforgettable experience of your life.
