Unit 7 Culture

Topic 2—Lesson 1(上篇)

A place you visited to learn another culture

I. Pronunciation Practice (2 minutes)

The Flap

A flap occurs when a 't' comes between two vowels. The pronunciation of the 't' in these incidences sounds like a 'd' and is said very quickly.

Read the following sentences and pay attention to the flap.

1. Do you need some water? ('wador')
2. The letter was in the mail box. ('ledder')
3. The bottle broke when it hit the floor. ('boddle')

II. IELTS Speaking Part 1 (8 minutes)

Extend your answer to 3-4 sentences. It's easier to get 7.5.

1. Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (4 minutes)

What do you normally do to relieve pressure?

What is the real purpose of travelling?

Which way do you prefer to travel, alone or with a group?

The examiner will score your answer from the following aspects:

1. How good you are at keeping talking at the right speed and connecting your ideas together;
2. How much vocabulary you have and how well you use it;
3. How many structures you have and how well you use them;
4. How well you pronounce the language.

2. Read and learn the following key words and models for the IELTS Part 1. You are suggested to apply these words in the following steps. (4 minutes)

Key Words and Models

basket case

 Example: If I am having an abnormally stressful day and have become a bit of a basket case, I tend to relieve my pressure by engaging in differing stretching exercises and yoga. If I have had a stressful week, I will try to spend as much of the weekend in nature as possible, as I find nature to have amazing calming effects on my nerves.

hit the road

 Example: I do not think that there is one all-encompassing theory on the real purpose of travelling as it is dependent on each individual's own motives. Since we can never know what other people's mental processes involve, we can only determine our own purposes for travelling. Therefore, each person's reasons or purposes to hit the road could be considered real for them.

lone wolf

 Example: I prefer travelling alone, as I consider myself to be a bit of a lone wolf. When you travel alone, it opens up more possibilities that you might not get when with a group, such as meeting people that are shy or participating in something that a member of a group would normally object to.

III. IELTS Speaking Part 2 (12 minutes)

1. Brainstorm. Plan your answers based on the given questions. (1 minute)

Describe a place you visited to learn another culture.

- Where did you go?
- What did you learn?
- How did you learn it?
- How did you feel about the culture?

Tips: During the first stage of Part 2, you don't need to talk. Keep the questions in mind and think them over.

2.1 Here is a model for the IELTS Speaking Part 2. We will focus on the words and expressions highlighted and in red below. (8 minutes)

Model 1

Where: Last summer I had the opportunity to visit Thailand for a long needed vacation. I spent most of my time in and around the capital city Bangkok. This vacation offered a smorgasbord of culturally centric delights to learn.

What: Theravada Buddhism is commonly practiced in Thailand and it was very interesting to see monks wearing their traditional garbs walking around the city. I also went to a Khon show, which is a stylised form of Thai performance.

How: Not only did I manage to learn about Buddhist customs, but I also took part in their food culture. Thai food was my other favourite part of visiting Thailand. I think their food really represents specific aspects of their culture, as it is spicy, quite a combination of regional influences from India, Vietnam, and China. Thai culture really proved to be open-minded and kind. After any transaction they would always bow and say thank you. To me this sums up the entirety of Thai culture, as from what I gathered they have a peaceful culture and thanks to the beliefs inherent in Buddhism, many of the inhabitants are vegetarian.

How you felt: Due to their vegetarianism there is hardly any open street markets with dead animals displayed, which in my opinion adds to the harmonious atmosphere this country is known to exhibit.
