I. Pronunciation Practice (2 minutes)

Stress Pattern

Can and Can't: (the words in bold should be stressed)

I can do it.

I can't do it.

I can name everyone at the party.

I can't name everyone at the party.

Read the following sentences and circle the words that need to be stressed.

1. They can run very fast.

2. They can't run very fast.

II. IELTS Speaking Part 1 (8 minutes)

Extend your answer to 3-4 sentences. It's easier to get 7.5.

1. Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (4 minutes)

What place do you most like to visit?

How often do you visit this place? Why do you like it so much?

Has it changed very much since you first went there?
In what way?

The examiner will score your answer from the following aspects:

1. How good you are at keeping talking at the right speed and connecting your ideas together;
2. How much vocabulary you have and how well you use it;
3. How many structures you have and how well you use them;
4. How well you pronounce the language.

2. Read and learn the following key words and models for the IELTS Part 1. You are suggested to apply these words in the following steps. (4 minutes)

Key Words and Models

a hop, skip, and a jump

 Example: Although there are a number of places I frequent in the city, none of them bring me as much pleasure as the natural world does. A place that I truly enjoy visiting is a park that is near my apartment. It is located just a hop, skip, and a jump from my building's entrance, which makes visiting this park extremely simple and convenient.

a picture paints a thousand words

 Example: Due to the close proximity of the park I like to visit, you would think I go there quite often, but ironically this is not the case. My hectic work schedule keeps me busy for the better part of the week, and when I do manage to gain some free time, it's on the weekend. Therefore, I spend many a Saturday at the park in question. I like this park for it is majestic, but to be honest, a picture paints a thousand words, so I fear I can do it justice to explain why I like it so much.

hue

 Example: The park I frequent when I'm able to has not undergone any manmade changes; however, the scenery does change with the seasons. In fall the surrounding tree leaves turn a gold and brown hue and fall to the ground like paper. In winter the trees are bare and the park resembles a scene from what I imagine to be similar to a Russian stage play or ballet. Summer is when the changes to the park are in full swing with animals scarring about, birds singing, and people walking and enjoying the natural setting.

III. IELTS Speaking Part 2 (12 minutes)

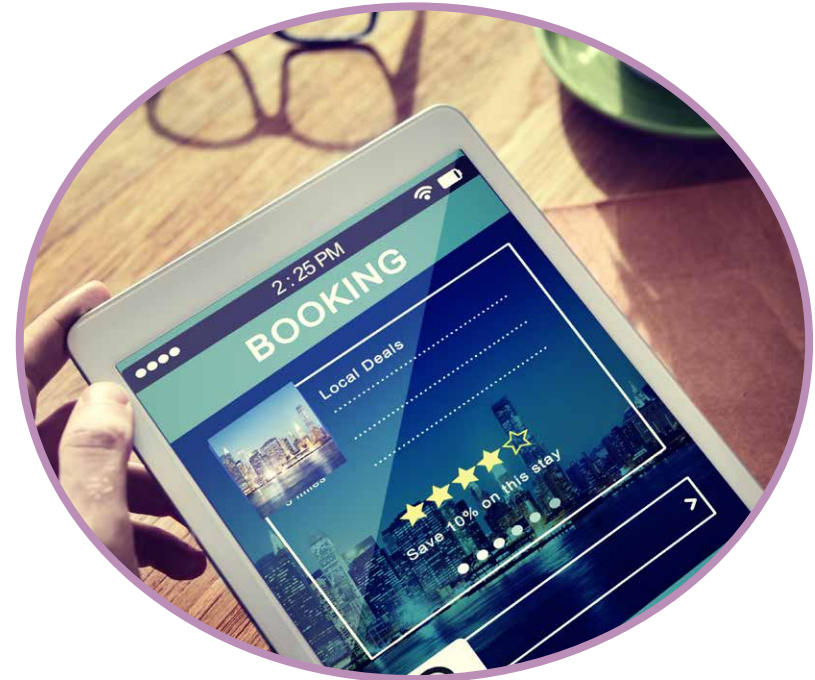

1. Brainstorm. Plan your answers based on the given questions. (1 minute)

Describe a useful website you have visited.

- What was the website?
- How did you find the address for this website?
- What does the website contain?
- Why was it useful to you?

Tips: During the first stage of Part 2, you don't need to talk. Keep the questions in mind and think them over.

2.1 Here is a model for the IELTS Speaking Part 2. We will focus on the words and expressions highlighted and in red below. (8 minutes)

Model 1

What the website was: With the rapid spread of the digital age, a wealth of websites designed for all purposes materialised. One perhaps known to all but is especially important to those who work and students is Wikipedia.

What the website contains: Just as their logo promises, it's a free site designed for the sole purpose of sharing information and hence to better one's knowledge in a field that is perhaps unfamiliar or unknown to oneself.

Why it was useful to you: I myself know just how useful it is, relying on it during countless class assignments and other aspects of studying. It has gained a sturdy reputation over the years as a site which is truthful and can be relied upon for up-to-date news and information regarding a huge variety of subjects, both big and small. The most amazing thing I suppose is that Wikipedia has yet to be polluted by adverts and other methods for exploiting others for financial gains. Instead, it relies solely on generous donations in order to keep it online and its servers running. There is no other website like it, and it has become the first place any one would go to in order to gain information on something new.

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.

2.2 Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (3 minutes)

Describe a useful website you have visited.

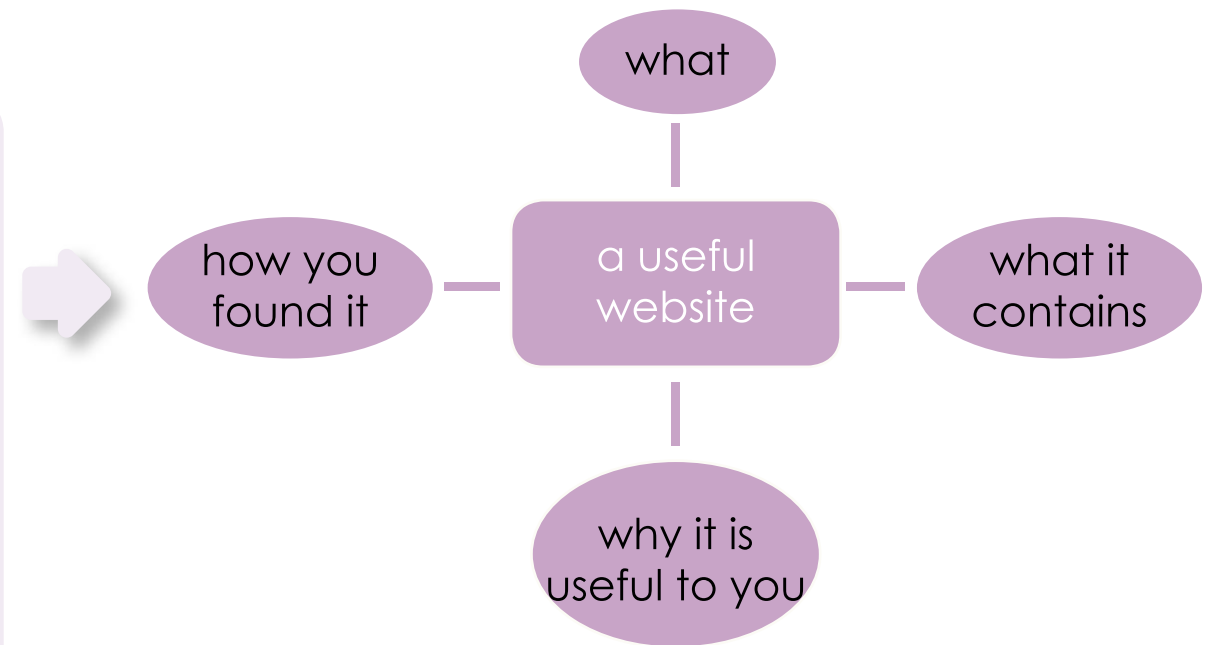

You should say:

what the website was

how you found the address for this website

what the website contains and explain why it was useful to you.

Homework: Please use the model for these two topics for further practice.

Describe a non-profitable organisation.

Describe a magazine you like.
