

51Talk IELTS Speaking-Advanced 雅思口语高级
——冲刺 7.5 分

Unit 1 People

Topic 4—Lesson 2(下篇)

A person who helps/helped people

IELTS Speaking Part 2 (10 minutes)

You will be given one minute to prepare to talk about the topic on the task card. You will have to talk for 1-2 minutes, and then the teacher will give you feedback for 2-3mins. (5 minutes)

Describe a person who has done a lot of work to help people.

You should say:

who this person is/was

where this person lives/lived

what he/she has done to help people and explain how you know about this person.

Tips: During the first stage of Part 2, you don't need to talk. Keep the questions in mind and think them over.

2.3 Here is another model for the IELTS Speaking Part 2. We will focus on the words and expressions highlighted and in red below. (5 minutes)

Model 2

Who this person is: Whilst I am well aware there are quite a few candidates that fit the bill as the most helpful person, and are perhaps significantly more qualified, I'd rather discuss someone more personal to me. He was one of my teachers at school, yet he stood out from the crowd as he attempted to help all those who needed it to the best of his ability, and this was not just limited to me.

Where this person lives: He resided on site at school.

What he has done to help people: To elaborate further, he taught history but that's not exactly how I came to know him, rather it was during his years as a boarding tutor that our connection grew. He assisted me in forming my arguments for my personal statement when I was applying for a university, and on a more intellectual level, opened my eyes to the importance of history.

How do you know about this person: I knew him as I spent many an evening debating various topics of interest, my particular favourite being a rather fierce one about the importance of the French Revolution. Through these sessions, I learnt to appreciate history as more than just a study of the past, but rather as a tool for dictating the future.

IV. IELTS Speaking Part 3 (10 mins)

1. Please answer the following question from Part 3. According to your answer, the teacher will give you feedback on how to improve your organisational skills. (5 minutes)

How to organise your answer in Part 3:

T: Topic Sentence + S: Supporting Details (Explanation/Examples)

Do you think there are enough services, such as libraries or health centres, available to the people who live in your area?

T: Aside from the common health clinics, dental clinics, and alternative medical clinics, my area houses a variety of recreational services, which I believe are more than enough to provide for the community.

S1: There are an overwhelming amount of choices in recreational activities in my area. These services range from offering places to exercise to relaxation spas and even facilities dedicated to appreciating films. Any service that you could possibly want or need is available where I live.

S2: Furthermore, these services are located in every part of my area and seem to permeate through the streets. These same services are open to all ages, making the area where I live full of people from all walks of life.

2. You will learn some key words and expressions from these questions. Pay attention to the structure of the underlined sentences, and the words in red. (5 minutes)

Key Words and Models

Which groups of people generally need the most support in a community? Why?

 I assume that the most needful groups of people in any community are the disenfranchised or outcasts of society. People who fit this description are normally homeless people, orphans, and the extreme elderly. These groups oftentimes need extra support because they have no benefactors other than the state and even then are likely to fall through the cracks.

Who should pay for the services that are available to the people in a community? Should it be the government or individual people?

 This depends on the types of services. Public services should be provided by the government as these usually include basic services like electricity and water. Private services such as the Internet are traditionally paid for by individuals. However, I think the best practice would be a combination of government and individual sponsorship, which would best serve the community. Oftentimes it is taxes that pay for public services anyway, and therefore the individuals end up paying in one way or the other.

V. Summary (5 minutes)

Key Words & Expressions

stand out

on site

fierce pervasive

fall through the cracks

end up

Key Sentences

He was one of my teachers at school, yet he stood out from the crowd as he attempted to help all those who needed it to the best of his ability, and this was not just limited to me.

He resided on site at school.

I knew him as I spent many an evening debating various topics of interest, my particular favourite being a rather fierce one about the importance of the French Revolution.

These services are quite pervasive in the area where I live, and I feel that they are more than adequate to cover the diverse needs of our local community.

These groups oftentimes need extra support because they have no benefactors other than the state and even then are likely to fall through the cracks.

Oftentimes it is taxes that pay for public services anyway, and therefore the individuals end up paying in one way or the other.

The next lesson will be Unit 1 Topic 5 The oldest person you know.