What's That Smell?

We are going to learn about a dog's strong sense of smell.

Warm-up*2

min

Name three things these animals have in common.

Reading*4 min

Read with the teacher and then move to the Word Focus.

Some animals have a really powerful sense of smell. They are able to smell the scent of something that is located very far away.

Word Focus

- Pigs are dirty animals, so their scent is not very nice.
- What scent do you like?

Reading*3 min

Read with the teacher and then answer the question below.

Dogs are an animal that have a very strong sense of smell. They can remember the scent of another animal, which makes them very good at helping people hunt in the woods.

Why are dogs good at helping people hunt in the woods?

A dog's strong sense of smell also helps search and rescue teams when they try to track someone who is missing. A dog smells an item belonging to the missing person and then follows that same scent to find him or her.

Word Focus

- Many people want to find the missing gold.
- Have you ever had to look for something that was missing?

Reading*3 min

Read with the teacher and then answer the question below.

Our sense of smell is not as strong as a dog's, but we still use it for important things. The nose is important for keeping ourselves safe and healthy. We use it to stay away from food that smells bad, which usually means the food is no longer good to eat and could make us sick.

What kind of food smells good to you?
