

True Love

We are going to learn about the fictional characters Romeo and Juliet.

Warm-up

2 min

What do you see in the clouds?

What other interesting shapes of clouds have you seen?

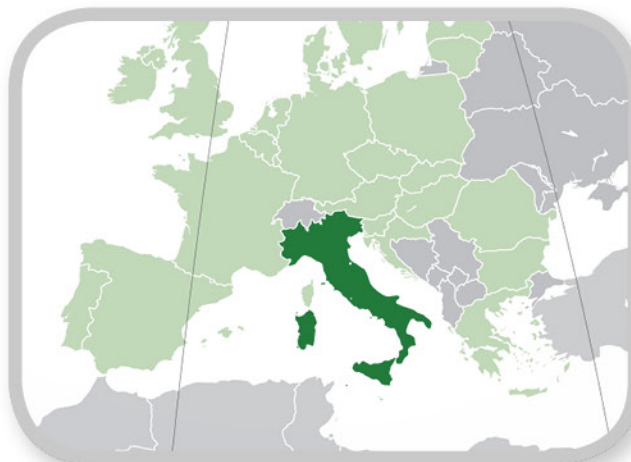

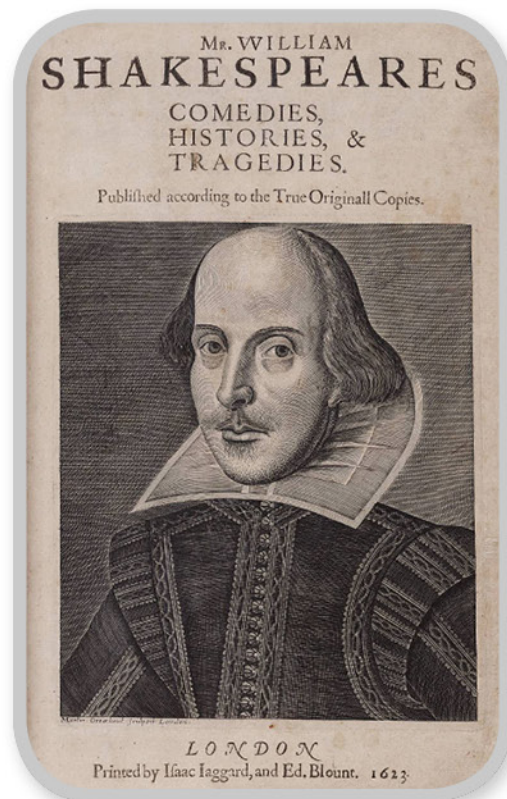

Reading

4 min

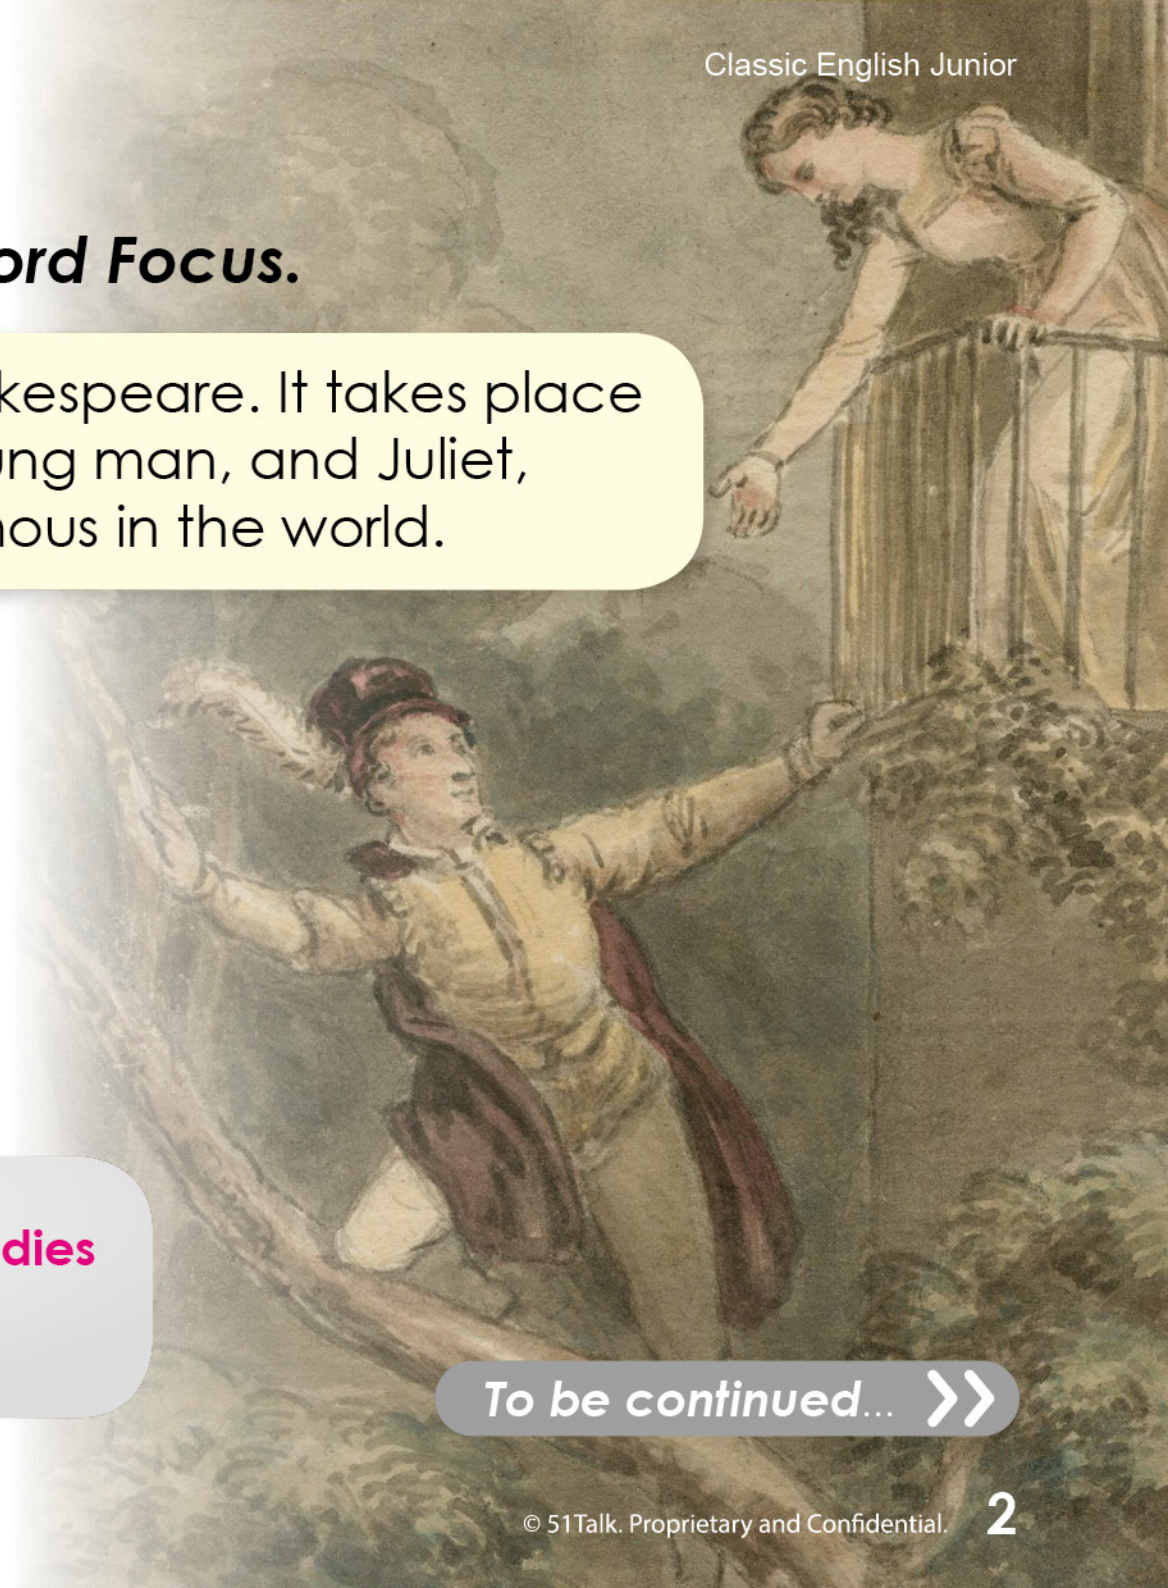

Read with the teacher and then move to the Word Focus.

Romeo and Juliet is a tragedy written by William Shakespeare. It takes place in Italy and is about the love between Romeo, a young man, and Juliet, a beautiful girl. Their love story is one of the most famous in the world.

Word Focus

- My friend doesn't like reading tragedies because of the sad endings.
- Have you ever read a tragedy?

To be continued... >>

Reading*3 min

Read with the teacher and then answer the question below.

Romeo and Juliet come from families that hate each other, so they know they will not be allowed to get married. They are so in love that they marry in secret anyway, but their happiness is very short.

What would you do if your family and your best friend's family started hating each other?

To be continued... >>

Reading*3 min

Read with the teacher and then answer the question below.

Soon after their wedding, Romeo and Juliet experience many unfortunate events. In the end, Romeo and Juliet tragically die in each other's arms. Their sacrifice has become an enduring symbol of love in popular culture.

What do you think of the way Romeo and Juliet's story ends?

To be continued... >>

Reading*4

min

Read with the teacher and then answer the questions below.

Romeo and Juliet has always been one of Shakespeare's most popular plays. It has been reenacted thousands of times in theaters all over the world.

Would you like to go to a theater and watch the play Romeo and Juliet? Why?

Task

4

min

Use the words given in the boxes below to create sentences.

Romeo, William, tragedy, Shakespeare, Juliet, and,
written, is, a, by

Romeo and Juliet is a tragedy written by William Shakespeare.

Juliet, come, from, Romeo,
families, each other, hate,
that, and

in each other's arms, die,
tragically, and, Juliet,
in the end, Romeo has always been, plays, and,

Shakespeare's, Romeo,
Juliet, one of, most popular

More challenges! >>

Leadership*4 minDiscuss with the teacher.

Q1. What do you think of Romeo and Juliet?
I think that Romeo and Juliet are...

Q2. Do you think that there are people like Romeo and Juliet in real life?
I think that...

Q3. What could people learn from reading Romeo and Juliet's story?
I think that people could learn about...

In this lesson, we...

learned about the fictional characters Romeo and Juliet.

learned new words/phrases.

- ☐ tragedy ☐ in each other's arms
- ☐ hate ☐ unfortunate
- ☐ play ☐ theater

