

Endangered Animals

We are going to review some of the endangered animals.

Warm-up

2 min

Why do you think endangered animals are sometimes kept in sanctuaries or zoos?

Reading*4 min

Read with the teacher and then answer the question below.

We are going to play a game, where you have to guess the endangered animal. Your task is to match each of the following texts you read with the correct endangered animal. Are you ready?

Can you remember any of the endangered animals you learned about in this unit?

Lesson 1

Lesson 2

Lesson 3

Lesson 4

Lesson 5

Lesson 6

Lesson 7

To be continued... >>

Reading 4 min

Read with the teacher and then answer the question below.

A

giant panda

B

Siberian tiger

C

Asiatic cheetah

#1

These animals are native to south central China and their diet mostly consists of bamboo.

#2

These animals are so endangered that they are extinct in the wild. They can now only be found in zoos in Iran.

What do you know about Siberian tigers?

To be continued... >>

Reading 3 min

Read with the teacher and then answer the question below.

#1

These animals are hunted for their beautiful ivory tusks. In the 1980s, over 100,000 of them were killed each year for their ivory.

#2

These animals are endangered due to poachers. The poachers use their fur to make expensive clothes and decorations.

What do you know about blue whales?

To be continued... >>

Reading*3 min

Read with the teacher and then answer the question below.

A

black rhinocero

B

blue-throated macaw

C

blue whale

#1

These endangered animals are known for their huge size and weight. They used to roam the oceans, but were hunted almost to extinction in the 1960s.

#2

These endangered animals are very strong, but their population has shrunk to less than 6,000 today due to poaching.

What do you know about blue-throated macaws?

Task*4

min

Read the Grammar Focus and then use the words in each box to make a sentence.

Grammar Focus

- Type one conditional: The “if” clause uses the simple present tense, while the main clause uses the simple future tense. The “if” clause is used to express a certain condition that must happen for the action in the main clause to happen.
- Form: If + simple present, will + verb.
- E.g., If I study hard, I will pass the exam.
If you read this book, you will find out what happened.
- Note: Never use future tenses in an “if” clause, such as “If you ~~will~~ go, I will go, too.”

if, to, go, we,
London, will, we,
visit, London Eye,
the

if, shop, open,
the, is, will, I, buy
food, some

if, misses, bus,
she, the, will, she,
late, be

if, am, I, busy,
will, my, help,
friend, you

More challenges! >>

Leadership*4 minDiscuss with the teacher.

Q1. Which one of these seven endangered animals was the most interesting to learn about? Why?
The most interesting endangered animal was... because...

Q2. Which endangered animal would you like to save? Why?
I want to save the... because...

In this lesson, we...

reviewed some of the endangered animals.

reviewed the words.

- | | |
|-------------------------------------|----------------------------------|
| ☐ extinct | ☐ poacher |
| ☐ endangered | ☐ shrink |
| ☐ tusk | ☐ native |

