Unit 9 Event

Topic 6—Lesson 2(下篇)

A new and exciting thing

Read the task card for 10 seconds and get a general idea of this topic. (1 min)

Describe something you did that was new and exciting.

You should say:

what you did

where and when you did this

who you shared the activity with

and explain why this activity was new and exciting for you.

In the real examination, the examiner will ask you to prepare for 1 minute.

3.2 Here is another model for the IELTS Speaking Part 2. We will focus on the sentences highlighted below. (4 mins)

Model 2

When, where and who: Last year, I took part in an exchange program with a UK high school. Over the summer holiday, I took the opportunity to travel through the UK all by myself. It was a thrilling experience for me.

What: Prior to this trip, I'd never experienced the joy of traveling alone, much less alone in a foreign country. Nevertheless, I decided to go on this adventure by myself. I began researching the particulars for this trip on the Internet and asking my schoolmates for advice on where to go and what to see. During my holiday, I was able to wander around the scenic landscape of the Lake District and the Scottish Highlands, visit both the royal Big Ben and the sacred British museum. What's more, I was able to make some quick friends who were also traveling by themselves.

Why: This journey was a fantastic first trip where I was by myself, which taught me a great deal about self-reliance. Traveling in a foreign land without help has improved my character and made me a more responsible person. I have absolutely no regrets, and will treasure the unique feeling I had while experiencing the magnificent and mixed culture of the UK.

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.

4. Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please describe the topic below with what you have learned to make your description better. (5 mins)

Describe something you did that was new or exciting.

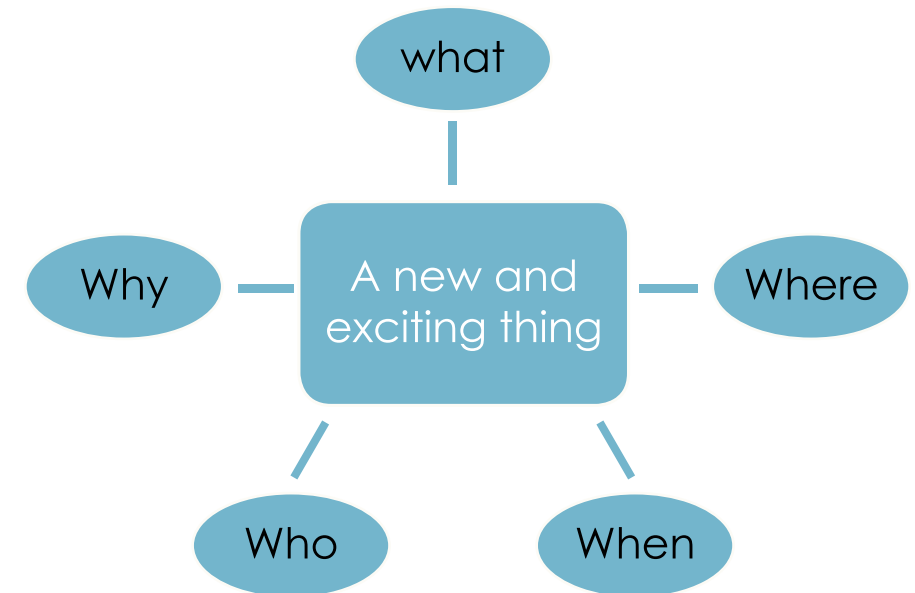

You should say:

what you did

where and when you did this

who you shared the activity with

and explain why this activity was new and exciting for you.

Homework: please use the models further for these 2 topics after the lesson.

Describe how you spent last weekend.

Describe an outdoor activity.

IV. IELTS Speaking Part 3 (10 mins)

1. Read and learn the following key words and sentences for the IELTS Part 3. You are suggested to apply these words in the following steps. (5 mins)

Key words and key sentences

break the mold

 Example: Most people are creatures of habit, repetitively doing the same things every single day. Breaking the mold every once in a while and trying something new can keep you from becoming bored, and give you the chance to meet new and interesting people who do exciting and unique things.

discouraging

 Example: When starting something new, one will be unfamiliar with the rules of the activity. This can lead to someone failing the first few times when they try something new, which they might find discouraging. It may even cause someone to lose their self-confidence. Some might even abandon the activity altogether and continue only doing things inside their comfort zone.

be a rarity

 Example: I personally prefer to do things alone the first time, although I acknowledge that is probably a bit of a rarity. In a group, you have others to witness your failures. Alone, I can fail without fear, and thus accelerate my courses for any particular activity.

2. Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (5 mins)

Please give two supporting ideas at least for each question.

Why do you think some people like doing new things?

What problems may people encounter when trying new activities for the first time?

Do you think it's best to do new things on your own or with other people? Why?
