Topic 2—Lesson 2(下篇)

A piece of interesting news

Read the task card for 10 seconds and get a general idea of this topic.

Describe a piece of interesting news.

You should say:

when you heard the news

who was/were involved in the news

why it was interesting and explain how you felt after you heard the news.

In the real examination, the examiner will ask you to prepare for 1 minute.

3.2 Here is another model for the IELTS Speaking Part 2. We will focus on the sentences highlighted below. (4 mins)

Model 2

When: Let me share with you a piece of interesting news I heard last week.

Who: Last Friday a guy went to a bank in New York and tried to rob it. Actually I think he is kind of a nice guy. It's just that he lost everything in the financial crisis: he got fired, he lost his house and wife. The only thing he had was his debt , so he decided to rob the bank and get some money...or maybe take revenge on society.

Why: However, the problem was he didn't have a gun, so this guy just took a banana instead. He thought he could fool the bank tellers. Then he entered the bank, approached a teller, told her he had a gun and asked her to give him cash. Of course the police came. This guy pulled out his "gun", I mean, his banana...

How you felt: The news was interesting, yet sad. Many people have lost their jobs in this crisis. I feel sorry for them.

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.

4. Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please describe the topic below with what you have learned to make your description better. (5 mins)
