Topic 3—Lesson 2(下篇)

A radio programme

Read the task card for 10 seconds and get a general idea of this topic.

Describe a radio programme you like.

You should say:

what the programme is

when you first listened to it

what content attracted you most and explain why you chose this programme to talk about.

In the real examination, the examiner will ask you to prepare for 1 minute.

3.2 Here is another model for the IELTS Speaking Part 2. We will focus on the sentences highlighted below. (4 mins)

Model 2

What and when: My favorite radio programme is called Your Turn. My mum recommended this programme to me when I was around 20 years old.

What content: I got attracted by the whole content of this programme immediately when I first listened to it. Basically, this programme is a life coaching practice. It teaches people to use the skills they are naturally equipped with to achieve a stronger, more successful and fulfilling life. Life coaches and thought leaders are invited to share their life lessons in this programme. These life lessons help people identify their own potential and create practical steps through detailed planning. In this way, it also helps move people beyond where they are while respecting where they are finally.

Why: I have been listening to this programme for five years. It makes me realize the importance of treasuring what you have got and teaches me how to make the most out of life. In short, it is very educational, which is the reason why I chose it to talk about.

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.

4. Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please describe the topic below with what you have learned to make your description better. (5 mins)
