Model 2

What and when: My favourite film is Big Hero 6, a touching Disney animated movie I saw three months ago.

What content: Big Hero 6's protagonist is a boy named Hiro, and his personal companion robot. Hiro is a 14-year-old orphan who lives with his elder brother and his aunt. A mysterious fire and explosion kills Hiro's brother, but Hiro gains a companion: a robot named Baymax programmed to be a medical assistant. With the help of Baymax, Hiro discovers that his brother's death wasn't an accident at all, and begins to uncover the truth. After turning Baymax from a robotic nurse into a combat bot, Hiro finds out who his brother's murderer is and brings him to justice.

Why: I liked this movie for two reasons. One is that I was deeply impressed by Hiro's bravery and dedication. Watching him bring his brother's murderer to justice was quite inspiring. Also, Baymax, who is cute and considerate, became quite popular among Chinese girls. He shows Chinese girls what an ideal boyfriend should act like. After seeing this movie, I dreamed of getting a robot, or a boyfriend, like him.

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.

IV. IELTS Speaking Part 3 (10 mins)

1. Read and learn the following key words and sentences for the IELTS Part 3. You are suggested to apply these words in the following steps. (5 mins)

Key words and key sentences

genre

Example: There are currently two very popular genres in Chinese film: the anti-Japanese war movie genre, and the historical kung fu genre. Foreign films are also widely viewed, but are mostly confined to mainstream Hollywood movies. Avant-garde cinema remains well-received only in certain intellectual circles.

subside

Example: Older people generally prefer classic, so-called “red” films. People’s cinematic tastes began to change during the 80’s as the Cultural Revolution subsided and an influx of imported films began to grab the attention of Chinese audiences, especially gangster movies from Hong Kong. Now, young people enjoy a wide selection of movies, from Japanese anime to American blockbusters such as Transformers.

radical

Example: The reason why the older generation likes classic, red cinema is due to a feeling of nostalgia. In a society that has gone through many sudden and radical changes over the past decades, these older films remind them of how life was when they were younger. For modern moviegoers, the special effects, acting, and pacing of these movies appear a bit outdated.

2. Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (5 mins)

Please give two supporting ideas at least for each question.

What types of films are most popular in China?

Compare the films that older people like to watch with those that younger people like.

Key sentences

Although the park itself is not overly large, I still find it quite relaxing to go there in the evenings.

I think parks should be free to all visitors, and the costs associated with running and maintaining the park should be funded by the government as public service.

As a public space, a park promotes a sense of community amongst the residents who live near it. Also, in extreme cases, parks in China serve as a shelter when natural disasters such as earthquakes strike.
