Unit 10 Media

Topic 6—Lesson 2(下篇)

Your favourite magazine or newspaper

Read the task card for 10 seconds and get a general idea of this topic. (1 min)

Describe your favourite magazine/newspaper

You should say:

what the name of the magazine/newspaper is

what the main content is

how often you read it

and explain why you like it.

In the real examination, the examiner will ask you to prepare for 1 minute.

3.2 Here is another model for the IELTS Speaking Part 2. We will focus on the sentences highlighted below. (4 mins)

Model 2

What: My favourite newspaper is called China Daily, which is an English-language daily newspaper published in China.

What content: China Daily is called the “Voice of China” or “Window to China.” It covers quite a range of news, including social, economic, and cultural news stories. But I'd say it essentially focuses on national and domestic current affairs. It serves foreign readers as a window into official government policy, and is also useful to students who learn English as a second language.

How often: I read it daily during my subway commute. I hardly ever read an edition in its entirety, as it would be far too time-consuming for me.

Why: I have always been a faithful reader of this newspaper. As an international newspaper, China Daily is quite informative, which helps me keep up-to-date with what's going on in the wider world. Otherwise I would be ignorant of current political and economic trends. Another thing worth mentioning is that the newspaper as a whole is generally well-written. The articles are concise, unlike the articles in some other newspapers I've read in the past.

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.

4. Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please describe the topic below with what you have learned to make your description better. (5 mins)

Describe your favourite magazine/newspaper

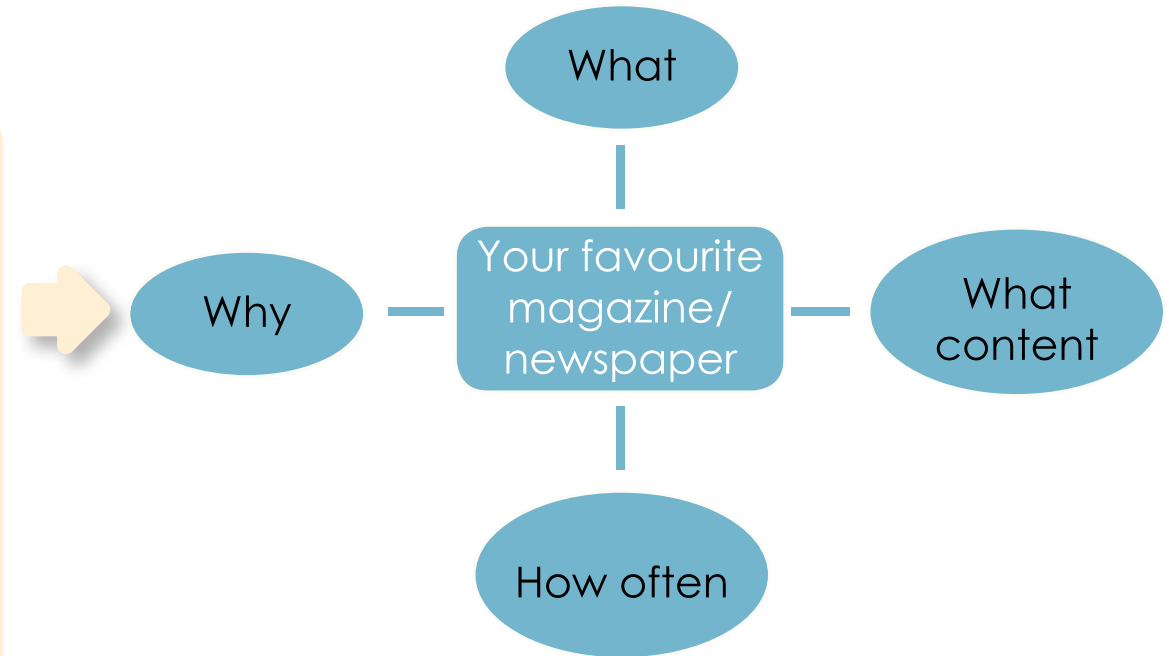

You should say:

what the name of the magazine/newspaper is

what the main content is

how often you read it

and explain why you like it.

Homework: please use the models further for these 2 topics after the lesson.

Describe a magazine you enjoyed reading.

Describe a magazine you have read recently.

IV. IELTS Speaking Part 3 (10 mins)

1. Read and learn the following key words and sentences for the IELTS Part 3. You are suggested to apply these words in the following steps. (5 mins)

Key words and key sentences

fantasy

Example: When it comes to literature, I prefer novels to poetry. While the language and rhythm of poetry can be both beautiful and moving, I find novels more interesting. I most enjoy fantasy novels; the worlds the authors create transport me into another reality, where magic, dragons, and heroes exist.

well-informed

Example: Newspapers and books are functionally different. The function of a newspaper is to inform its readers of significant events happening around the world. In short, they keep us well-informed. Books offer us academic knowledge about certain subjects, such as biochemistry and geopolitics.

edification

Example: Whether it is for personal edification or educational self-betterment, reading imparts knowledge to the reader. The more knowledge you have, the better-equipped you are to tackle any challenges you'll face.

2. Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (5 mins)

Please give two supporting ideas at least for each question.

What kind of books do you enjoy?

What are the differences between newspapers and books?

What are the benefits of reading?

V. Summary (5 mins)

Key sentences

I enjoy different types of music, from country music, jazz, and the blues to classical and hip hop. I have the greatest respect for composers like Bach, who wrote some of the most technically difficult and mind-expanding music ever.

I play the piano and the guitar. When I was about five years old, I learned to play the piano, and since then I have won several prizes in piano competitions.

Whenever I feel frustrated, an upbeat song can motivate me and lift my spirits. Meanwhile, I find the blues to be the best type of music for relieving my anxiety.

When it comes to literature, I prefer novels to poetry. While the language and rhythm of poetry can be both beautiful and moving, I find novels more interesting.

Newspapers and books are functionally different. The function of a newspaper is to inform its readers of significant events happening around the world. In short, they keep us well-informed.

Whether it is for personal edification or educational self-betterment, reading imparts knowledge to the reader. The more knowledge you have, the better-equipped you are to tackle any challenges you'll face.
