

JOURNEY to the WEST 87

The Three Young Women

Wukong and his companions were walking through a forest.

Wukong looked around suspiciously.
He knew that forests were often filled with dangers.

The monkey peeked over the wall. Three young women were laughing and kicking a ball around.

“I will speak to the women.
You three might frighten them.” said the Tang Monk.

The Tang Monk opened the gate and went through.

The three young women led the Tang Monk into their house.

As soon as the monk entered, he became scared.

They began to pull out long strands of spider silk.

“What’ s taking Master so long?” asked Wukong.

“The house is covered in spiderwebs!” cried the pig.

Webs wrapped around it, and soon the weapon was stuck to his head.
