Unit 3 Places

Topic 3—Lesson 1(上篇)

A river, lake or sea

I. Pronunciation Practice (2 minutes)

Sentence Stress

Speakers tend to link certain words together and pause between others. This gives their speech a characteristic rhythm and flow, and helps the listener follow what they say.

Underline the words that can be linked and decide when to pause.

1. First of all, /they can experience things directly...
2. You know, they're not in the classroom any more; in addition, they're in a different environment.

II. IELTS Speaking Part 1 (8 minutes)

Extend your answer to 3-4 sentences. It's easier to get 7.5.

1. Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (4 minutes)

What is there to do in your free time in your hometown?

How do you spend your holidays?

Is there anywhere you would particularly like to visit? Why?

The examiner will score your answer from the following aspects:

1. How good you are at keeping talking at the right speed and connecting your ideas together;
2. How much vocabulary you have and how well you use it;
3. How many structures you have and how well you use them;
4. How well you pronounce the language.

2. Read and learn the following key words and models for the IELTS Part 1. You are suggested to apply these words in the following steps. (4 minutes)

Key Words and Models

blessing in disguise

 Example: Actually, my hometown is quite small with a population of only two thousand people, so there are not very many options as it relates to normal activities. Since my hometown is quite rural, the most popular activity to take part in is hiking with friends or swimming in a local river. This has actually turned out be a blessing in disguise as the lack of traditional activities has led to the development of desirable habits such as staying home and reading books or being more family-oriented.

homebody

 Example: To be perfectly honest, I am a self-proclaimed homebody, so I prefer staying home on my holidays as opposed to travelling or going out, which is a far cry from staying indoors during the holidays. For me nothing beats curling up in a nice cozy bed with a book and a mug of hot chocolate with marshmallows. For me this type of holiday is the expression of relaxation, which lets me control how I spend my time away from work.

allure

 Example: There are a number of places that I would like to visit eventually. A place that I am most interested in visiting is the Dead Sea. This particular place appeals to me for multiple reasons. First of all, the Dead Sea is a very famous and almost sacred spot that is alluring to any enthusiastic traveller like me. Secondly, this sea has been steadily declining over the past decade or so, which means that if I do not take the initiative to see it soon, I might never lose the chance.

III. IELTS Speaking Part 2 (12 minutes)

1. Brainstorm. Plan your answers based on the given questions. (1 minute)

Describe a river, lake or sea which you like.

- What is the river, lake or sea is called?
- Where is it?
- What is the land near it like?
- Why do you like this river, lake or sea?

Tips: During the first stage of Part 2, you don't need to talk. Keep the questions in mind and think them over.

2.1 Here is a model for the IELTS Speaking Part 2. We will focus on the words and expressions highlighted and in red below. (8 minutes)

Model 1

What & where: A river that I find mesmerizing is the great Amazon River of South America. Although I have never been to this river myself, I can still appreciate it due to the sheer enormity of its existence. The Amazon River has the largest discharge of water in the world and is also one of the longest river in the world.

What: Since water is the main component of life, it should come as no surprise that the surrounding areas that the Amazon passes through are teeming with wild life of all shapes and sizes. The river also feeds the surrounding tropical forest, which is known as the Amazon Rainforest. This forest is also home to one-third of the world's fauna and thus is considered the most biodiverse in the world.

Why: I really appreciate it, simply because the river is such a beautiful natural wonder and from what I gather from its photos, it seems serene and tranquil. However, I must say that what most appeals to me about this river is the research value it holds for someone like me. I am a bit of an amateur biologist and the sheer amount of new animal and plant species discovered in and around the Amazon River really excites me.

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.

2.2 Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (3 minutes)

Describe a river, lake or sea which you like.

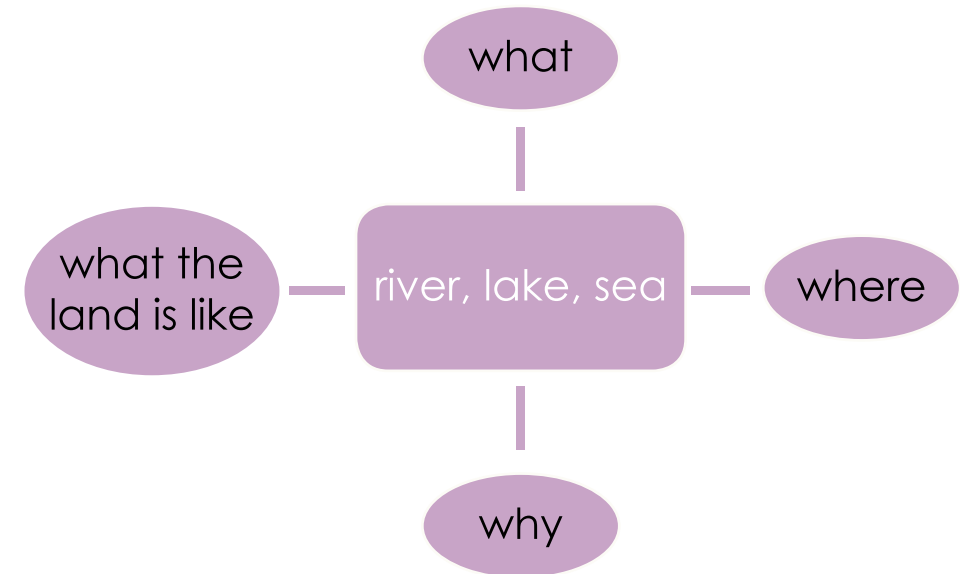

You should say:

what the river, lake or sea is called where it is what the land near it is like and explain why you like this river, lake or sea.

Homework: Please use the model for these two topics for further practice.

Describe your favourite river or lake.

Describe a sea you like.
