Describe a restaurant that you enjoyed going to.

You should say:

where the restaurant was

why you chose this restaurant

what type of food you ate in this restaurant and explain why you enjoyed eating in this restaurant.

Tips: During the first stage of Part 2, you don't need to talk. Keep the questions in mind and think them over.

2.3 Here is another model for the IELTS Speaking Part 2. We will focus on the words and expressions highlighted and in red below. (5 minutes)

Model 2

Where the restaurant was: I myself, whilst not a fan of big restaurants, have to say that this one I'm about to present to you is rather special in that it's an innovative restaurant. This restaurant was located near my hotel in Sanya.

Why you chose this restaurant: I particularly love the simplicity because it's just so easy to choose items on the menu, which consists of a burger, or a lobster, and that's why this restaurant is so fittingly known as Lobster and Burger. It gives a rather quirky sense to anyone who visits. To be honest, this is just what curious diners like me are specially in pursuit of.

What type of food you ate and why you enjoyed eating there: When I eat out I usually go for the grilled lobster, which usually comes with an herby butter sauce. So at this particular outing I had mostly seafood. My meal consisted of the imperial lobster with butter sauce, the grilled shrimp with pineapple sauce, and the squid sautéed with mango juice. For the liquid beverage I had iced watermelon tea, which was simply delicious, cool and refreshing with a sprig of mint on top. I'm shocked and rather disappointed that no other restaurant serves anything like this. This place particularly brings back memories of the time when I first went there with one of my best friends.

IV. IELTS Speaking Part 3 (10 mins)

How to organise your answer in Part 3:

T: Topic Sentence + S: Supporting Details (Explanation/Examples)

Why do you think people go to restaurants when they want to celebrate something?

T: In general, I imagine people choose to go to restaurants to celebrate for two main reasons.

S1: First, on rare and memorable occasions, such as wedding ceremonies or birthday parties, dining in restaurants makes the celebration much more meaningful and special, since you need not go to restaurant to have dinner every day.

S2: Furthermore, celebrating at restaurants also has the added convenience that they would provide everything needed for a party, including superior service, dishes cooked by excellent chefs and high-quality alcohol.

2. You will learn some key words and expressions from these questions. Pay attention to the structure of the underlined sentences, and the words in red. (5 minutes)

Which are more popular in your country: fast food restaurants or traditional restaurants?

 Both fast food restaurants and traditional restaurants are equally popular in China. The only distinguishable difference between the popularity of the two would be on which days they are most filled with people. As a general observation fast food restaurants have more customers on the weekdays as people are normally on their lunch breaks. However, on the weekend more people tend to frequent traditional restaurants as it allows for a more pleasant atmosphere.

Some people say that food in an expensive restaurant is always better than food in a cheap restaurant. Would you agree?

 In the shortest amount of words possible, yes. I tend to agree with that statement. I think that food prepared at an expensive restaurant offers far more positive qualities than food prepared at an inexpensive restaurant. Firstly, the food is made with fresher ingredients that are chosen personally by the head chef. Secondly, the food is prepared by a group of professional chefs with years of experience. Last but not least, the meal is served by a waiter or waitress whose only job is to take care of your every need making expensive restaurants superior to cheap restaurants in every way.
