

51Talk IELTS Speaking-Advanced 雅思口语高级
——冲刺 7.5 分

Unit 4 Objects

Topic 2—Lesson 1(上篇)

Something you bought but haven't used quite often

I. Pronunciation Practice (2 minutes)

Stress Pattern: (Nouns should be stressed. When they are replaced by pronouns, verbs should be stressed.)

Example:

- Kitty sees Mike. She sees him.
- Lily and Tim fix the computer. They fix it.

Read the following sentences and circle the words that need to be stressed.

1. The Stevens went shopping. They bought something.
2. Ellen should call the police. She should call someone.
3. The kids have an apple. They have one.

II. IELTS Speaking Part 1 (8 minutes)

Extend your answer to 3-4 sentences. It's easier to get 7.5.

1. Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (4 minutes)

Do you go anywhere to enjoy quiet time? Where is that?

Are there any noises that you don't like?

How serious is noise pollution in your country?

The examiner will score your answer from the following aspects:

1. How good you are at keeping talking at the right speed and connecting your ideas together;
2. How much vocabulary you have and how well you use it;
3. How many structures you have and how well you use them;
4. How well you pronounce the language.

2. Read and learn the following key words and models for the IELTS Part 1. You are suggested to apply these words in the following steps. (4 minutes)

Key Words and Models

solitude

Example: Whenever I'm frustrated with my city's noise level, I'll take a road trip with friends to neighbouring cities, towns, villages, or suburbs that have less noise pollution than my city. Also, there is a mountain range that neighbours my city that I climb on occasion. Nothing can compare to the peace and solitude of a mountaintop.

superfluous

Example: Nothing makes me more annoyed than unnecessary honking, although a baby crying is naturally a close second. Due to urban planning failures, my city suffers from frequent traffic-related problems due to an excess of automobiles and an inefficient road layout. The inevitable result is superfluous honking and frayed nerves.

alleviate the situation

Example: The problem is very serious, and exacerbated by the number of people who reside in the eastern portion of the country. With over 90% of the population living on the Eastern seaboard, overcrowding and excessive noise pollution are inescapable. Cultural factors, such as the popularity of the so-called "dancing grannies" in public squares, do nothing to alleviate the situation.

III. IELTS Speaking Part 2 (12 minutes)

1. Brainstorm. Plan your answers based on the given questions. (1 minute)

Describe something you bought but haven't used quite often.

- What is this thing?
- When and where did you buy it?
- Why did you buy it?
- Why didn't you use it quite often?

Tips: During the first stage of Part 2, you don't need to talk. Keep the questions in mind and think them over.

2.1 Here is a model for the IELTS Speaking Part 2. We will focus on the words and expressions highlighted and in red below. (8 minutes)

Model 1

What it is & when, why and where you bought it: Last year I bought an e-reader from a reputable online store and at the time I was more than certain that it would get plenty of use, as I am usually quite astute and am fond of reading.

Why you didn't use quite often: In the proceeding weeks I downloaded countless e-books that I had always wanted to read. These books entered my folder one by one based on my friends' and family's recommendations. I assume that this is where my problem began. I accumulated so many books of different genres, styles, and authors that even beginning to read one became a daunting task. I suppose it's similar to coming to the base of a mountain and looking all the way to the summit. It is intimidating to say the least. Another variable that impeded me in my quest to use my e-reader was owing to a new job that I had just acquired not long after buying my device. My job was and is so demanding that I hardly have any free time to read and when I am free, I hardly want to spend my precious free time reading. It is especially hard to motivate myself to read when there are so many good television shows being aired, and TV shows basically require zero effort to enjoy, unlike books. I suppose once I have more time, I might go back to reading e-books.

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.

2.2 Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (3 minutes)

Describe something you bought but haven't used quite often.

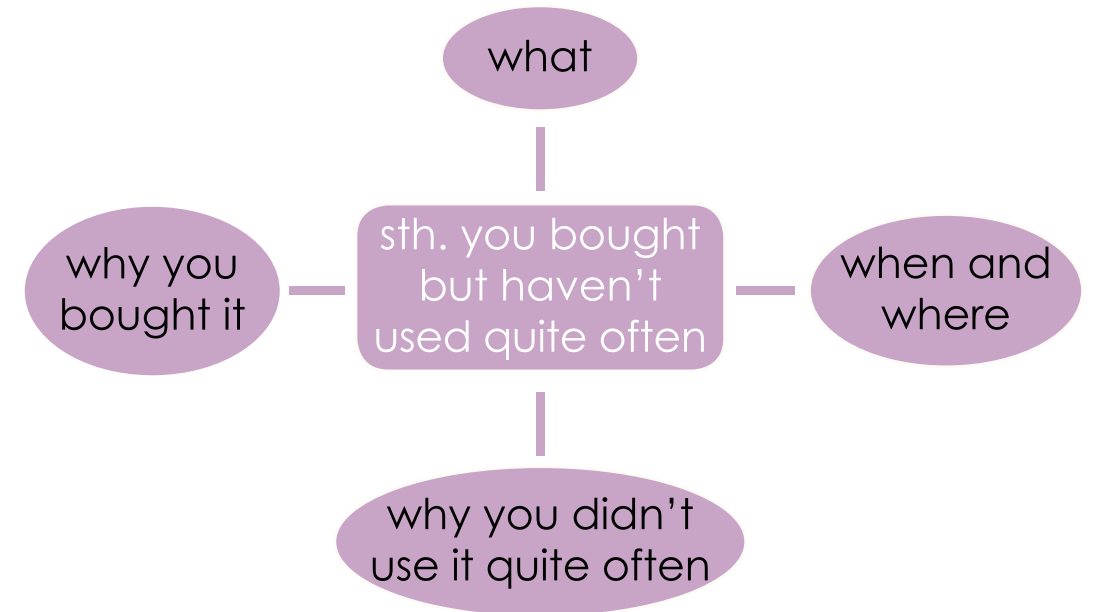

You should say:

what this thing is

when and where you bought it

why you bought it

and explain why you didn't use it quite often.

Homework: Please use the model for these two topics for further practice.

Describe an electronic device.

Describe an object you use every day.

Review (2 minutes)

Key Words & Expressions

solitude

superfluous

alleviate the situation

reputable

of different genres

all the way to

Key Sentences

Nothing can compare to the peace and solitude of a mountaintop.

The inevitable result is superfluous honking and frayed nerves.

Cultural factors, such as the popularity of the so-called “dancing grannies” in public squares, do nothing to alleviate the situation.

Last year I bought an e-reader from a reputable online store.

I accumulated so many books of different genres, styles, and authors that even beginning to read one became a daunting task.

I suppose it's similar to coming to the base of a mountain and looking all the way to the summit.

You will learn more about this topic in Lesson 2.