Part 2 Let's Learn

Look and read.

The dream catcher is associated with the Native American culture.

Native Americans believe that the dream catcher can catch all of your unhappy dreams just like a spider's web  catches worms if you hang it over your bed.

Part 2 Let's Learn

Look and read.

How to make a dream catcher?
First, you need to cut out the center of a paper plate. Second, make holes about 1 cm apart around the plate.

Part 2 Let's Learn

Look and read.

Put yarn into one hole. Then you can weave the yarn from hole to hole around the paper plate. You can use different colors of yarn to make the dream catcher more colorful.

Part 2 Let's Learn

Look and read.

Now you can weave across the paper plate. Let a few pieces of yarn hang down from the plate. Then put some beads on the yarn. We are getting close to the final step!

Part 2 Let's Learn

Look and read.

Finally, tie some feathers to the yarn. It's done!

You can now hang your dream catcher over your bed and it will protect you from unhappy dreams.
Have a happy dream tonight!
