Unit 9 Event

Topic 3—Lesson 1(上篇)

A positive change in your life

I. Pronunciation Practice (2 minutes)

Sound Changes with Consonants

In a negative sentence, both the modal verb 'can't' and the main verb are stressed. However, the 't' in 'can't' is dropped and replaced with a glottal stop if the next sound is a consonant.

Read the following sentences and pay attention to the pronunciation of 'can't'.

1. We can't go to the movies. (kan)
2. Larry can't speak French. (kan)
3. Some people can't sing. (kan)

II. IELTS Speaking Part 1 (8 minutes)

Extend your answer to 3-4 sentences. It's easier to get 7.5.

1. Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (4 minutes)

Do you prefer to live in the city or in the countryside?

Do you think it is appropriate to keep pets in cities?

What can we do to protect our environment?

The examiner will score your answer from the following aspects:

1. How good you are at keeping talking at the right speed and connecting your ideas together;
2. How much vocabulary you have and how well you use it;
3. How many structures you have and how well you use them;
4. How well you pronounce the language.

2. Read and learn the following key words and models for the IELTS Part 1. You are suggested to apply these words in the following steps. (4 minutes)

Key Words and Models

conducive

Example: Currently I prefer to live in the city; however, as I mature in years I am beginning to see the benefits of living or at least retiring to the countryside. For me the urban setting seems conducive to the young professional lifestyle, which in a way is quite nomadic in relation to job searching, and the city allows people to indulge in a convenient way of living.

recreational

Example: Although the city can be a harsh environment for pets, there are many dog parks located throughout the urban area. These recreational locations refer to the fact that humans have kept pets in their settlements for centuries, so of course we continue to keep pets to this day. It would be hard to imagine people living without the solid companionship of loving pets.

drum up

Example: The environmental protection will drum up numerous methods that anyone can follow to make a difference. One such method is investing in alternative forms of energy, such as solar power, which is a popular renewable resource that is being talked about as a legitimate replacement for fossil fuels. If every citizen adopts solar power, this would cut carbon emissions drastically and go a long way in making serious dents in the reversal of climate change.

III. IELTS Speaking Part 2 (12 minutes)

1. Brainstorm. Plan your answers based on the given questions. (1 minute)

Describe a positive change in your life.

- When did this change happen?
- What was it changed?
- Why was it positive?
- How has the change influenced your life?

Tips: During the first stage of Part 2, you don't need to talk. Keep the questions in mind and think them over.

2.1 Here is a model for the IELTS Speaking Part 2. We will focus on the words and expressions highlighted and in red below. (8 minutes)

Model 1

When: A positive change in my life happened in October about three years ago.

What: I had just got back from a rather long vacation and was due back at work in a few days. One morning I was reading the classifieds when I came across a post from an animal rescue group. They wanted someone responsible and loving to give a rescue dog a home. I decided on the spot that the person they were looking for was me, because I love dogs and have always grown up with these loving and loyal canines around.

Why it was positive: No love is greater than that of a dog. They are the most loyal friends you can ever ask for. My new furry friend gave me a new lease on life and made me more responsible and a better person, which is always a positive thing.

Influence on your life: Not only did having a new best friend improve my attitude towards life, but I also become a more charitable person. I have been volunteering at various animal shelters in my city and have even become a volunteer blog writer for animal rescue websites.

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.

2.2 Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (3 minutes)

Describe a positive change in your life.

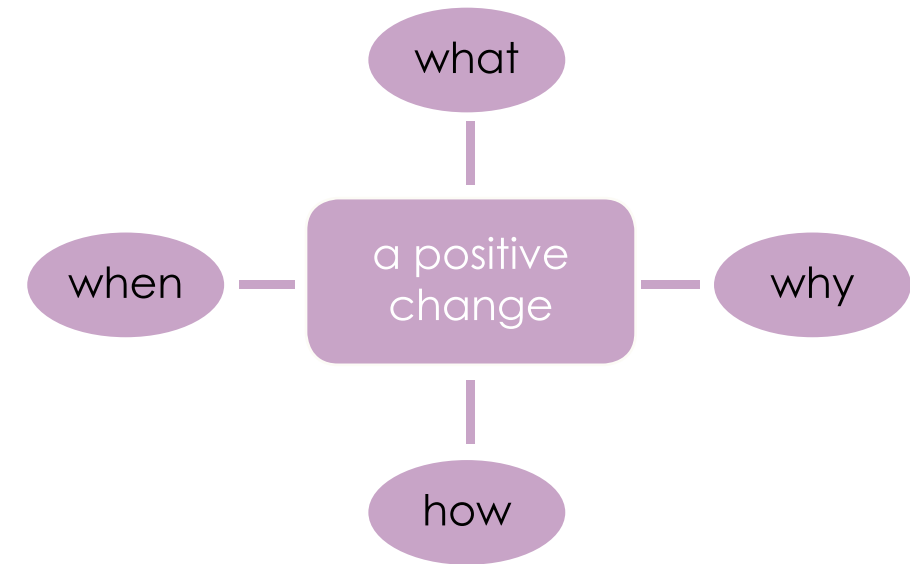

You should say:

When this change happened

What this change was

Why it was positive

And explain how this change has influenced your life.

Homework: Please use the model for these two topics for further practice.

Describe a change in your life.

Describe a change affecting your life.
