Topic 3—Lesson 2(下篇)

A positive change in your life

IELTS Speaking Part 2 (10 minutes)

You will be given one minute to prepare to talk about the topic on the task card. You will have to talk for 1-2 minutes, and then the teacher will give you feedback for 2-3mins. (5 minutes)

Describe a positive change in your life.

You should say:

When this change happened

What this change was

Why it was positive

And explain how this change has influenced your life.

Tips: During the first stage of Part 2, you don't need to talk. Keep the questions in mind and think them over.

2.3 Here is another model for the IELTS Speaking Part 2. We will focus on the words and expressions highlighted and in red below. (5 minutes)

Model 2

When: A great and wonderful thing happened to me about 6 months ago when I moved into a new apartment.

What: My new residence was home to its very own little gym. It is equipped with a treadmill, a stationary bike, a set of free weights, and an Abs machine.

Why it was positive: In my opinion, the hardest part about getting in shape is motivation, which is even harder to muster if you have to travel several miles to get to the gym. But when a gym is just a few feet away from your bedroom, that obstacle of distance becomes irrelevant. So with a full room dedicated to exercise at my disposal, I have begun working out now more than ever!

Influence on your life: Since I moved into this new apartment, I had never been in such good shape. Thanks to my habit of working out, I now have more energy for other things. For example, I have met a new group of friends that like to ride bikes on the weekend. So in conclusion, the new apartment, the gym, and my new social life have all been wonderful influences on my life!

IV. IELTS Speaking Part 3 (10 mins)

1. Please answer the following question from Part 3. According to your answer, the teacher will give you feedback on how to improve your organisational skills. (5 minutes)

How to organise your answer in Part 3:

I: Introduction Sentence + P: Points (Point1, Point2...)

What are people's attitudes toward changes?

I: In general, people's attitudes towards changes are either negative or positive.

P1: Older people tend to have a negative perception on changes that occur around them. This in part is due to their pursuit of a sense of stability and security. Thus, whenever changes take place, they oftentimes feel depressed or worried.

P2: On the other hand, young people are more positive about changes, since they are more curious about the outside world and are also more capable of adapting to changes. Whenever fresh things appear, they would definitely feel excited. Whenever novel things occur, they are more likely to get excited and embrace the change in circumstances.

2. You will learn some key words and expressions from these questions. Pay attention to the structure of the underlined sentences, and the words in red. (5 minutes)

Key Words and Models

Do you like to plan what you will do each day?

To a certain extent, I do not mind having aspects of my day planned. However, I prefer at least a minor amount of spontaneity laced within any given day. In my honest opinion, it is very difficult to do without some planning for any given day especially weekdays, although I can see the advantages in having your day planned out down to every hour. Perhaps such a detailed structure for one's day gives comfort in the idea that events will transpire as they should, giving an illusion of control; however, I prefer the chaos that is reality and therefore will have very little in the way of planning.

Would you like to change anything about your daily routine right now?

There might be one thing I would change. I have reached an age when I am more or less satisfied with my daily routine, but if I had to change one thing, I suppose it would be my morning habit of drinking coffee. This part of my daily routine is one that I have wanted to change for the longest time, but I have found it to be an invincible challenge as I have become quite addicted to this liquid substance.

Key Sentences

My new residence was home to its very own little gym.

But when a gym is just a few feet away from your bedroom, that obstacle of distance becomes irrelevant.

So with a full room dedicated to exercise at my disposal, I have begun working out now more than ever!

This in part is due to the inability to keep up with current trends and a complete lack of understanding of the rapidly evolving climate.

However, I prefer at least a minor amount of spontaneity laced within any given day.

I have reached an age when I am more or less satisfied with my daily routine.
