

51Talk IELTS Speaking-Advanced 雅思口语高级
——冲刺 7.5 分

Unit 9 Event

Topic 5—Lesson 1(上篇)

A project or some work that you did with others

I. Pronunciation Practice (2 minutes)

/ʒ/ and /dʒ/

Example:

lesion /liʒən/

legion /li'dʒən/

Read the following words and pay attention to difference between /ʒ/ and /dʒ/.

television Asia measure pleasure /ʒ/geography generation vantage mélange /dʒ/

II. IELTS Speaking Part 1 (8 minutes)

Extend your answer to 3-4 sentences. It's easier to get 7.5.

1. Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (4 minutes)

Do you like meeting new people?

What kind of people do you like to have as friends?

Sometimes we do things because of peer pressure. Do you agree or disagree?

The examiner will score your answer from the following aspects:

1. How good you are at keeping talking at the right speed and connecting your ideas together;
2. How much vocabulary you have and how well you use it;
3. How many structures you have and how well you use them;
4. How well you pronounce the language.

2. Read and learn the following key words and models for the IELTS Part 1. You are suggested to apply these words in the following steps. (4 minutes)

Key Words and Models

a handful of

Example: Honestly, I do not like meeting new people because I always feel as if I am coming between them and their other relationships. I have always thought that too much of a good thing is bad, so I tend to only keep a handful of good friends. To this end, I feel that meeting new people is a waste of time since I already have the maximum amount of friends I want in my life.

charisma

Example: A common trait that I like a majority of my friends to have is charisma. This type of friend always has a lot of energy and tends to be a go-getter. Since I have so few close friends, this specific type of friend serves to keep me on my toes when it comes to new social situations. So I always end up meeting new people, but only the most interesting of these people ever become mutual acquaintances.

peer pressure

Example: As someone that has personally been part of several clicks, I do agree that peer pressure does occur from time to time. When you are a member of a group, it is usually due to similar beliefs or customs. Sometimes when in this group, you might be asked to do something you do not a hundred percent agree with; however, you are compelled to do it, because if you don't, you might become an outsider, which to most is a dreadful outcome.

III. IELTS Speaking Part 2 (12 minutes)

1. Brainstorm. Plan your answers based on the given questions. (1 minute)

Describe a project or some work that you did with others.

- What was the project or work?
- When did you do this?
- Who was/were with you?
- How easy or difficult was it?
- How you feel about it?

Tips: During the first stage of Part 2, you don't need to talk. Keep the questions in mind and think them over.

2.1 Here is a model for the IELTS Speaking Part 2. We will focus on the words and expressions highlighted and in red below. (8 minutes)

Model 1

What the project or work was: Recently, I worked on a DIY project. It involved repurposing old wooden coat hangers. The goal of the project was to create an easier way to hang large amounts of jewellery.

When you did this: This project took place last summer while I was visiting my parents.

Who was with you: Since this was a task aimed at helping my mother manage her massive jewellery collection, it was mostly she and I that worked on it cooperatively.

How easy or difficult it was: As a matter of fact, this project was quite simple for us to carry out. It consisted of only a few major steps. First, we removed the bottom wire on the coat hangers. This left only the wooden frame with the curved hook for hanging intact. The second and last step required screwing little hooks into the wooden frame, which created a hanger with about ten little hooks on each side of the coat hanger.

How you feel about it: To be honest, the end product of our tiny project was presentable. What we built functioned properly and was able to serve its purpose. The real value in the project was the quality time I was able to spend with my beloved family!

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.

2.2 Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (3 minutes)

Describe a project or some work that you did with others.

You should say:

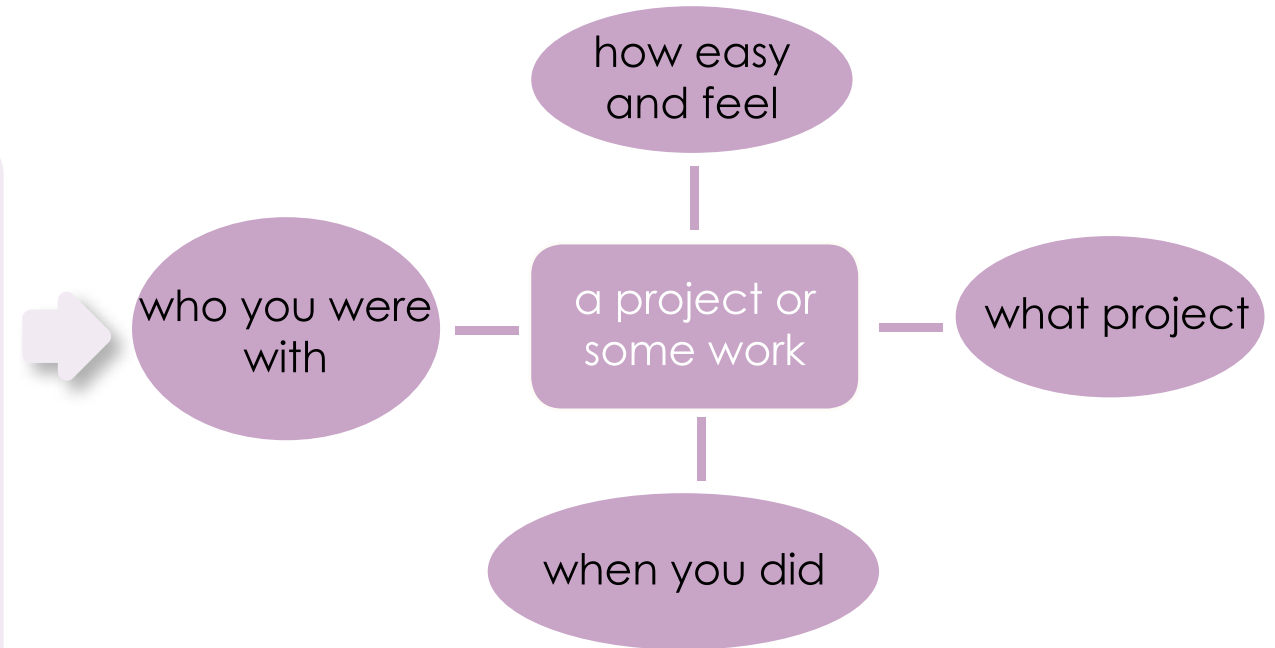

what the project or work was

when you did this

who was/were with you

how easy or difficult it was

and explain how you feel about it.

Homework: Please use the model for these two topics for further practice.

Describe a task you did with some coworkers.

Describe an obstacle you have conquered.

Review (2 minutes)

Key Words & Expressions

a handful of

charisma

peer pressure

repurpose

leave sth. intact

curved hook

Key Sentences

I have always thought that too much of a good thing is bad, so I tend to only keep a handful of good friends.

A common trait that I like a majority of my friends to have is charisma.

As someone that has personally been part of several clicks, I do agree that peer pressure does occur from time to time.

It involved repurposing old wooden coat hangers.

This left only the wooden frame with the curved hook for hanging intact.

You will learn more about this topic in Lesson 2.