what contents it has

and explain what you learn from this programme.

2.3 Here is another model for the IELTS Speaking Part 2. We will focus on the words and expressions highlighted and in red below. (5 minutes)

Model 2

Name of the programme: A programme that I enjoy watching occasionally is called Planet Earth.

What type of programme it is: This is an educational programme that focuses on the study of ecology.

Its contents: This programme is about nature. It features different episodes about varying regions on earth. A big part of the show is about how different species of animals interact in their natural environments and how these niches have a perfect balance that sustains all of their inhabitants. The show is a perfect blend of interesting facts overlaid with amazing footage of a wide variety of wildlife.

What you learn from this programme: I have really learned a lot from this show. I find the study of zoology and ecology fascinating. I have learned about the various weather patterns around the world and how they affect the environment. It is also interesting to learn how everything in nature reacts to everything else. If there is a change in one aspect, this can have an opposite and opposing reaction in another.

IV. IELTS Speaking Part 3 (10 mins)

1. Please answer the following question from Part 3. According to your answer, the teacher will give you feedback on how to improve your organisational skills. (5 minutes)

How to organise your answer in Part 3:

T: Topic Sentence + S: Supporting Details (Explanation/Examples)

Do you think there should be more educational TV programmes?

T: Although I think people today have more than enough formal schooling, there is always room for more educational programmes on TV.

S1: In my opinion, the best part of educational programmes is that many people, both young and old, enjoy learning something fresh and useful in their free time on TV. If more such programmes are made available, the literary level of the masses shall be enhanced.

S2: Also, as for many adults, like university students and employees, educational TV programmes can serve as a supplemental source for learning helpful knowledge and skills outside of the traditional classrooms.

2. You will learn some key words and expressions from these questions. Pay attention to the structure of the underlined sentences, and the words in red. (5 minutes)

Key Words and Models

What do you think are the benefits, and the drawbacks, of watching television?

I can only think of one major benefit and one major drawback of watching television. The benefit of watching television is that it gives you something safe to do in your own home, while also entertaining you in the process. I think the major drawback of watching television could be the development of complications due to the fact of sitting on the couch for too long. This is especially a negative drawback if someone becomes addicted to watching television.

What do you think can be the result if a person watches too much TV?

When someone watches too much TV, they can develop serious health problems. Watching an excessive amount of television can damage one's eyesight. Another health related issue is that sitting around the TV all day long can cause one to become obese, which leads to chronic heart disease and diabetes. Also, if someone becomes obsessed with television, they might have difficulty forming meaningful relationships.
