Yesterday afternoon Frank Hawkins was telling me about his experiences as a young man. Before he done or experienced in the past, but no longer done or experienced retired, Frank was the head of a very large business company, but as a boy he used to work in a small To repair bicycles was his job [2] shop. used to do sth., 过去常常做某事 [1] It was his job to repair bicycles and at that time he used to work fourteen hours a day. He saved It作形式主语, 避免句子头重脚轻 [3] his own workshop aged between 20 and 29 money for years and in 1958 he bought a small workshop of his own. sth. of one's own, 自己的 [4] 在他二十多岁的时候 In his twenties Frank used to make spare parts for airplanes. At that time he had two helpers. In a few years the small workshop had become a large factory which employed seven hundred and twenty-eight people. Frank smiled when he remembered his hard early years and the long road to success. He was still smiling when the door opened and his wife came in. She wanted him to repair their grandson's bicycle!

What was Frank's first job?

TI: Listen and guide S through the text.
