Once a year, a race is held for old cars. A lot of cars entered for this race last year and there was a great deal of excitement just before it began. One of the most handsome cars was a Rolls-Royce Silver Ghost. The most unusual car was a Benz which had only three wheels.

[1] Built in 1885, it was the oldest car taking part.

After a great many loud explosions, the race began.

1. Built in 1885, it was the oldest car ...*

= It was built in 1885. It was the oldest car ...

➤ Use past participle clause (a dependent clause) to shorten a passive sentence. The past participle clause shares the subject with the main clause.

E.g. (1) People were shocked by the explosion. People ran away.

= Shocked by the explosion, people ran away.

(2) The musicians stood up. The musicians were surrounded by thunderous applause.

= The musicians stood up, surrounded by thunderous applause.
