

JOURNEY to the WEST 35

A Visit to the King

Princess Hundred Flowers tricked me!" said the monster. . .

The monster went to the princess' room. . .

The monster recited a quick spell. . .

“We must save my daughter,” said the king. . .

A handsome young man walked into the hall. . .

The young man narrowed his eyes at the Tang Monk and pointed. . .

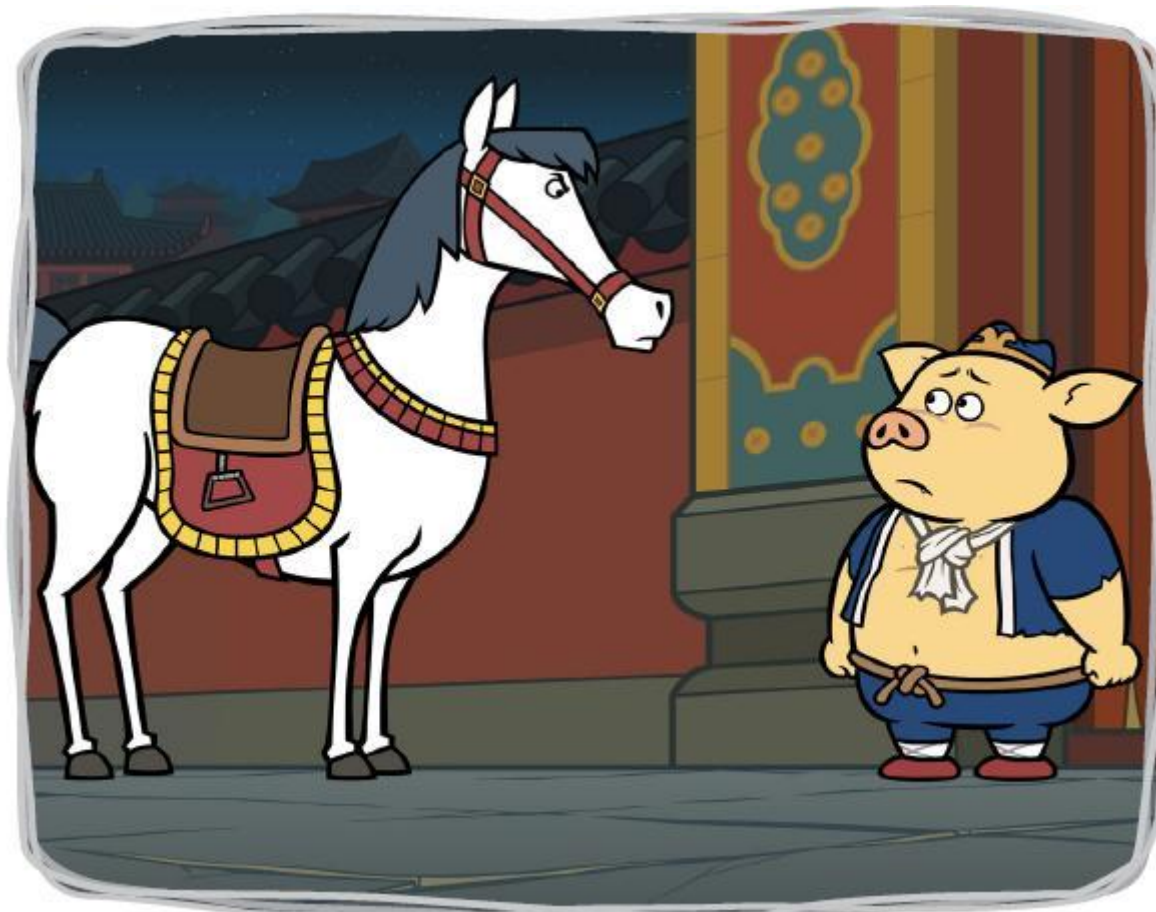

Now a tiger sat in the Tang Monk' s spot. . .

“Did you hear about the Tang Monk?” asked another boy. . .

That night Bajie was sitting alone outside. . .

“You’ re talking!” cried Bajie. . .

The horse bit Bajie on the leg. . .

The horse thought for a minute. . .
