I. Pronunciation Practice (2 minutes)

the Invisible 'r'

Example:

'were' is pronounced with a double /ər/: /wərər/

'word' is also pronounced with a double /ər/: /wərər/, but you need to hold your tongue in the position of 'd': /wərərd/, not /wərd/

Read the following sentence and pay attention to the troublesome 'r'.

Those words were the last thing he had said before he left.

II. IELTS Speaking Part 1 (8 minutes)

Extend your answer to 3-4 sentences. It's easier to get 7.5.

1. Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (4 minutes)

Do you like animals? Why or why not?

What kinds of pets do people keep in your country?

Are there wild animals near where you live?

The examiner will score your answer from the following aspects:

1. How good you are at keeping talking at the right speed and connecting your ideas together;
2. How much vocabulary you have and how well you use it;
3. How many structures you have and how well you use them;
4. How well you pronounce the language.

2. Read and learn the following key words and models for the IELTS Part 1. You are suggested to apply these words in the following steps. (4 minutes)

Key Words and Models

defenseless

Example: To tell you the truth, I love all members of the animal kingdom. I think the worst quality of humanity is the lack of respect and care for nature and especially for nature's defenseless inhabitants. In my opinion, it is essential to show our sincere love and respect to the other creatures living on earth, and to stop taking actions that are detrimental to the ecology.

attach importance to

Example: People mostly keep mammals as pets, which are usually furry animals. I'd say in China cats and dogs are very popular pets for residents. People attach great importance to their pets and will treat them like members of their family. It is particularly interesting to notice that some pets are dressed up in fancy clothing and even have their own special hairstyles.

inhabit

Example: I live in a very urbanised environment, so there are not really any wild animals on four legs; however, occasionally I can see some flying wild animals near where I live. As a matter of fact, many different types of birds are inhabiting my community, with the most popular being the Asian Magpie.

III. IELTS Speaking Part 2 (12 minutes)

1. Brainstorm. Plan your answers based on the given questions. (1 minute)

Describe a photograph of yourself that you like very much.

- Who took the photograph?
- When was the photograph taken?
- What were you doing in it?
- Why do you like the photograph so much?

Tips: During the first stage of Part 2, you don't need to talk. Keep the questions in mind and think them over.

2.1 Here is a model for the IELTS Speaking Part 2. We will focus on the words and expressions highlighted and in red below. (8 minutes)

Model 1

Who took the photograph: The one that wielded the camera was the manager of the restaurant we were dining in at the time. We asked him to take a group photo after our meal together and he, being as kind as he was, agreed. The photograph was taken last year in the exordium of summer, in April I do believe, a delightful season as far as weather is concerned.

What you were doing when it was taken: As I mentioned before, we had just had a group dinner in a little but pleasant restaurant and decided to take this photo afterwards to preserve the moment. In the photograph it can be observed that we're standing in a line, with arms around those on either side of us. We were standing next to the bar, stocked with various drinks.

Why you like it so much: Appreciating photos of oneself seems slightly self-obsessive and the reason why I prefer this one is that this particular photograph depicts me with a group of friends, which proves that at least some people could stand by my side and be my company. It also reminds me of the days when I had a large group of friends around. Furthermore, the other photos of myself I own are embarrassing, as they depict my adolescent year. Therefore, this photo is the one I show to everyone when they wish to see a photo of me.

You are required to talk for the full 2 minutes.

2.2 Imagine you are a candidate in the IELTS test. The teacher is an examiner. Please answer the questions below with what you have learned to develop your IELTS answers. (3 minutes)

Describe a photograph of yourself that you like very much.

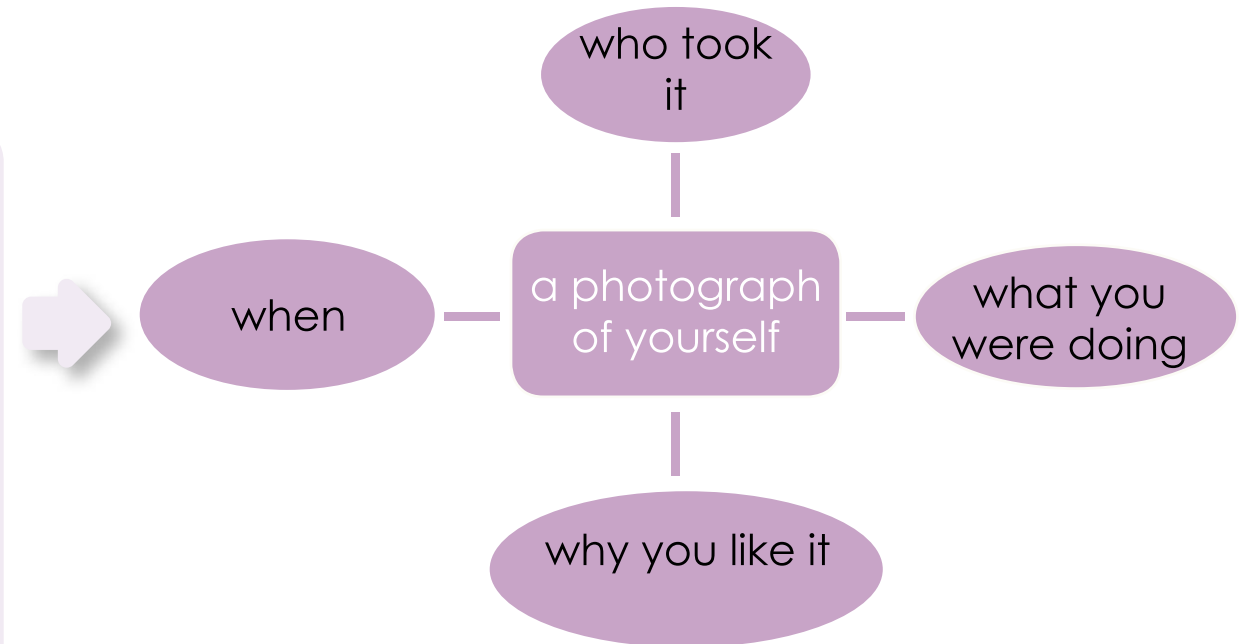

You should say:

who took the photograph

what were you doing

when the photograph was taken and explain why do you like the photograph so much.

Homework: Please use the model for these two topics for further practice.

Describe an unforgettable occasion.
