When and why: I finished the book on the day I received it. Last week, I had a history paper about World War II to finish. Since this book was written during that time, I read it again.

what it is about: The book is about a 13-year old Jewish girl, who goes into hiding for two years with her family during the Nazi occupation of the Netherlands. Under those dangerous circumstances, she shows her optimism and love for others. Even though she goes through many difficult trials, she never gives up on hope and her dreams.

What you like or dislike: To my surprise, I learned a lot from this book. As a thirteen-year-old little girl, her perception of life was really optimistic. My heart was also touched by her pure love for the world and her faith even though times were rough during the war.
